Whatever the question the answer is on the phone This Pavlovian response is the mobile mind shift the expectation that I can get what I want anytime in my immediate context Your new battleground for customers is this mobile moment the instant in which your customer is seeking an answer If you're there for them they'll love you if you're not you'll lose their business Both entrepreneurial companies like Dropbox and huge corporations like Nestl are winning in that mobile moment Are you Based on 200 interviews with entrepreneurs and major companies across the globe The Mobile Mind Shift is the first book to explain how you can exploit mobile moments You'll learn how to Find your customer's most powerful mobile moments with a mobile moment audit Master the IDEA Cycle the business discipline for exploiting mobile Align your business and technology teams in four steps Identify Design Engineer Analyze Manufacture mobile moments as Krispy Kreme does it sends a push notification when hot doughnuts are ready near you Result 500 000 app downloads followed by a double digit increase in same store sales Turn one time product sales into ongoing services and engagement as the Nest thermostat does And master new business models as Philips and Uber do Find ways to charge more and create indelible customer loyalty Transform your technology into systems of engagement Engineer your business and technology systems to meet the ever expanding demands of mobile It's how Dish Network not only increased the efficiency of its installers but also created new on the spot upsell opportunities Mobile is rapidly shifting your customers into a new way of thinking You'll need your own mobile mind shift to respond Routledge Handbook of Media Law Monroe E. Price, Stefaan G. Verhulst, Libby Morgan, 2013. Featuring specially commissioned chapters from experts in the field of media and communications law this book provides an authoritative survey of media law from a comparative perspective. The handbook does not simply offer a synopsis of the state of affairs in media law jurisprudence rather it provides a better understanding of the forces that generate media rules norms and standards against the background of major transformations in the way information is mediated as a result of democratization economic development cultural change globalization and technological innovation. The book addresses a range of issues including Media Law and Evolving Concepts of Democracy Network neutrality and traffic management Public Service Broadcasting in Europe Interception of Communication and Surveillance in Russia State secrets leaks and the media. A variety of rule making institutions are considered including administrative and judicial entities within and outside government but also entities such as associations and corporations that generate binding rules. The book assesses the emerging role of supranational economic and political groupings as well as non Western models such as China and India where cultural attitudes toward media freedoms are often very different. Monroe E. Price is Director of the Center for Global Communication Studies at the Annenberg School for the University of Pennsylvania and Joseph and Sadie Danciger Professor of Law and Director of the Howard M. Squadron Program in Law Media and Society at the Cardozo School of Law. Stefaan Verhulst is Chief of Research at the Markle Foundation. Previously he was the co founder and co director with Professor Monroe Price of the Programme in Comparative Media Law and Policy PCMLP at Oxford University as well as senior research fellow at the Centre for Socio Legal Studies. Libby Morgan is the Associate Director of the Center for Global Communication Studies at the Annenberg School for the University of Pennsylvania. Head's Broadcasting in America Michael McGregor, Paul D. Driscoll, Walter McDowell, 2016-01-08. This book documents the dramatic changes in the field of electronic media in the past decade and provides informed insights in the exciting and changes yet to come. It examines the transition in broadcasting from analog to digital transmission and the changing business models of electronic media.
