

Force Inference Directions

Now its easy to tell SketchUp exactly which direction you want using the arrow keys. Left = red, Up & down = Blue and, Right = Green. We've also added toggle functionality so you don't have to hold the keys down.

Component, Materials, and Styles Browsers

The components and materials browsers have been streamlined to improve ease-of-use.

Intersect Tool

We've made the intersect feature more robust. We've also added two new ways to intersect: Intersect Selected Only and Intersect With Context.

Paste in Place

Paste in place is an improvement to copy, cut, and paste functions. The precise location is remembered for quick placement of pasted selections. These enhancements are great for moving geometry in and out of components or groups without having to reposition your selection.

Two-Point Perspective

Two point perspective views are now possible in SketchUp. Easily recreate this classic style used by draftsmen and illustrators to create 3D renderings of buildings.

Better Modifier Keys

Use modifier keys to invoke operations like copy at any time during an operation.
