A Composition of Consciousness Patricia H. Perry, 2000. The premise of this book is that teachers of writing will never make any significant strides in the teaching and learning of writing until pervasive inhibiting and misinformed views about writing are transformed in the consciousness of people from the home and classroom to the office and boardroom. Dr Perry delves into the nature of consciousness, the epistemologies of predominant teaching approaches and some heretofore undervalued phenomenological foundations and similarities between the pedagogies and praxes of Paulo Freire and Peter Elbow. As a way to begin to address the continuing writing crisis, Dr Perry proposes a teaching approach, a composition of consciousness that targets and transforms inhibiting views about writing and promotes the creation of productive writing knowledge.
