Autotheory as Feminist Practice in Art, Writing, and Criticism Lauren Fournier,2021-02-23 Autotheory the commingling of theory and philosophy with autobiography as a mode of critical artistic practice indebted to feminist writing and activism In the 2010s the term autotheory began to trend in literary spheres where it was used to describe books in which memoir and autobiography fused with theory and philosophy In this book Lauren Fournier extends the meaning of the term applying it to other disciplines and practices Fournier provides a long awaited account of autotheory situating it as a mode of contemporary post 1960s artistic practice that is indebted to feminist writing art and activism Investigating a series of works by writers and artists including Chris Kraus and Adrian Piper she considers the politics aesthetics and ethics of autotheory

From Reading-Writing Research to Practice Sophie Briquet-Duhazé,Catherine Turcotte,2019-04-10

Teachers regularly seek to update their practice with newly developed tools from the realm of research with the aim of applying them directly in the classroom particularly for teaching reading and writing Thus teachers continuing education is dependent on the effective dissemination and appropriation of research results This book explores this problem from multiple angles presenting research projects from France and Quebec Canada Using a variety of methods including creating teaching materials and engaging classroom teachers in the research process the authors demonstrate the importance of ownership and dissemination of research results in schools Although this necessity sometimes complicates the work of researchers it is vital to develop and maintain the relationship between reading writing research and its practical applications
