programs focused on two perspectives on writing the teaching and learning of writing as a skill and the use of writing as a learning activity in various school subjects or skills acquisition. It is focused on analysing micro design features of the programs such as learning activities, supporting materials, specific strategies, instructional techniques, but also macro design rules of intervention programs such as instructional sequence, instructional stages based on research evidence provided for previous studies. This volume goes beyond a practical volume because it provides additional reflection and discussion about theoretical background and empirically based evidence which support the specific intervention programs described. Several chapters in this book include links to an Open Access e book where teacher and student materials for the authors' instructional approaches can be found. See ToC.

Academics, Artists, and Museums Irina D. Costache, Clare Kunny, 2018-06-28. Collaboration and interdisciplinary practice in the museum are on the rise. Academics, Artists, and Museums examines twenty first century partnerships between the museum and higher education sectors with a focus on art museums and exhibits. The edited volume offers detailed analysis of how innovative curatorial relationships between museums and academia have sought to engage new younger audiences through the collaborative transformation of museums and exhibitions. Thematic topics explored include the forming and nature of interdisciplinary partnerships, the integration of museum learning into higher education, audience engagement and digital technology. With a particular emphasis on practice in the US, the range of projects discussed includes those at both widely recognized and lesser known institutions from The Met to the Tohono O'odham Nation Cultural Center in the US to Ewha University Museum in South Korea and Palazzo Strozzi in Italy. The role of art and the work of the artist are firmly positioned at the core of many of the relationships explored. Academics, Artists, and Museums advocates for the museum as an experimental laboratory where academia, art and the museum profession can combine to engage new audiences. It is a useful resource for museum professionals, artists, scholars and students interested in collaboration and innovative practice.
