students through the writing process providing instruction on grammar and conventions and highlighting collaboration and reflection as key elements of effective writing. Students' final essays are assessed using a checklist developed by the class over the course of the unit. The organization and distinctive content of the model and source texts in each unit afford teachers the flexibility to implement each unit independently of the others and at any point during the curriculum. For example, a unit may be implemented to assess students' writing prior to implementation of the standard curriculum to scaffold writing instruction leading into a writing assessment or to support struggling writers by addressing gaps in skills as demonstrated in previous assessments. The Paths Writing Units provide teachers with invaluable opportunities to engage students as active participants in their own learning at every stage of the writing process and to customize instruction to meet the varying needs of all students.

An Introduction to Advanced Academic Argumentative Writing Approach for High School and Undergraduate Students Dr. Julius Nang Kum, An Introduction to the Advanced Academic Argumentative Writing Approach for High School and Undergraduate Students. This long-awaited textbook examines the knowledge-making genre or the argumentative writing at the advanced stage. It provides students with an insightful and a coherent picture of the academic argumentative essay, which is a training tool for knowledge-making for most convincing writings. The book is divided into six chapters. Chapter one highlights some key pragmatic features which are very necessary for most successful students in the academic world. Chapter two focuses on the writing skills and some advantages of being a good writer. The remaining chapters identify the actual definition of an academic argumentative writing and also highlight the components of the introduction section, the body section, and the conclusion section of the knowledge-constructing genre. The book would be appropriate as a training tool for the writing skills of many advanced and undergraduate students. We hope that high school and undergraduate students would find the book very interesting and vital for their advanced argumentative writings and some related convincing writings in other fields.
