Dragon Garden

Fantasy

I wasn't dreaming. My mom said she to weed the vegetable garden again today the dragon was back in the garden, and I knew I wasn't crazy.

Standing in the middle of the carrots was a small fire-breathing dragon. The creature stood as tall as my dog, but he looked ferocious. I watched him dig with his claws and wipe away the carrots from the ground.

I hid behind the scarecrow near the garden hoping he wouldn't see me. I stared at the dragon and was mesmerized by what I saw. I wanted to get a closer look. I crept slowly toward the garden with careful movements. If I moved too quickly, the dragon would speak and fly away.

"GRRR! GRRR!" barked my miniature Schnauzer, Lupa.

"Ugh," I groaned inside my head. I froze, and I glared at Lupa. She saw the dragon too.

"GRRR!" she continued to bark at the dragon.

The dragon turned around quickly, and he flapped his wings. Gracefully, he lifted off the ground.

My eyes widened as I continued to watch. The dragon was just as scared as Lupa. He hovered above her flapping his wings, while shouting fire out his mouth. I was stunned, but I also knew I needed to do something.
