Miller,Reed G. Williams,Thomas M. Haladyna,1978 From Zeus and Europa to Diana Pan and Prometheus the myths of ancient Greece and Rome seem to exert a timeless power over us But what do those myths represent and why are they so enduringly fascinating Why do they seem to be such a potent way of talking about our selves our origins and our desires This imaginative and stimulating Very Short Introduction goes beyond a simple retelling of the stories to explore the rich history and diverse interpretations of classical mythology It is a wide ranging account examining how classical myths are used and understood in both high art and popular culture taking the reader from the temples of Crete to skyscrapers in New York and finding classical myths in a variety of unexpected places from Arabic poetry and Hollywood films to psychoanalysis the Bible and New Age spiritualism Beyond the Five Paragraph Essay Kimberly Campbell, Kristi Latimer, 2023-10-10 Love it or hate it the five paragraph essay is perhaps the most frequently taught form of writing in classrooms of yesterday and today But have you ever actually seen five paragraph essays outside of school walls Have you ever found it in business writing journalism nonfiction or any other genres that exist in the real world Kimberly Hill Campbell and Kristi Latimer reviewed the research on the effectiveness of the form as a teaching tool and discovered that the research does not support the five paragraph formula In fact research shows that the formula restricts creativity emphasizes structure rather than content does not improve standardized test scores inadequately prepares students for college writing and results in vapid writing In Beyond the Five Paragraph Essay Kimberly and Kristi show you how to reclaim the literary essay and create a program that encourages thoughtful writing in response to literature They provide numerous strategies that stimulate student thinking value unique insight and encourage lively personal writing including the following Close reading which is the basis for writing about literature Low stakes writing options that support students thinking as they read Collaboration in support of discussion debate and organizational structures that support writing as exploration A focus on students writing process as foundational to content development and structure The use of model texts to write in the form of the literature students are reading and analyzing The goal of reading and writing about literature is to push and challenge our students thinking We want students to know that their writing can convey something important a unique view to share defend prove delight discover and inspire If we want our students to be more engaged skilled writers we need to move beyond the five paragraph essay The New York Times Practical Guide to Practically Everything Amy D. Bernstein, Peter W.

Bernstein, 2006-10-17 A collection of information on aspects of daily life and a variety of popular topics such as the home health animals nature sports and entertainment Beyond Equity at Community Colleges Sobia Azhar Khan, Kendra Unruh, 2022-06-15 This volume proposes that the work of community colleges has expanded beyond equity into providing a true barrier free learning environment for students one that is attuned to justice The essays included here serve as evidence and examples of the productive ways in which educators may bring theory and practice to bear on each other which in turn may allow community college faculty staff and administrators to reexamine the role of a community college as a space for justice Topics explored with this volume include liberatory educational practices in and out of the classroom transforming classrooms into the site of collaboration and contestation and unique visions of how to promote opportunity for marginalized students Ultimately the goal of this edited volume is to explore and encourage community college educators to understand the integral role they play in bringing transformative justice to their students and their communities The Black Student's Pathway to Graduate Study and Beyond Evelyn Shepherd W. Farmer, 2023-01-01 The Black Student's Pathway to Graduate Study and Beyond The Making of a Scholar is an informative and ambitious book designed to help Black prospective and current graduate students pursue graduate degrees successfully The book covers broad topics ranging from admissions policies standardized tests networking mentorship financial options qualifying and comprehensive exams proposal and dissertation writing publishing gender and race socialization and campus culture This volume is organized into five graduate pathways Pathway I Embarking on the Graduate Admissions Process Pathway II Confronting Race and Gender Disparities in Graduate Education Pathway III Persevering to the Graduate Degree Pathway IV Adjusting to the Socialization of Graduate Education and Pathway V Preparing for Success Beyond Graduate Education The book calls Black students attention to some of the barriers they may encounter along the pathway to a graduate degree The pathway to success can be linear or nonlinear since students travel different journeys and are at different vectors on the continuum The primary audience for this book consists of Black prospective and current graduate students graduate deans admissions counselors recruiters and faculty advisors in both black and white higher education institutions The secondary audience includes high school students guidance counselors and social and religious organizations Furthermore this book can serve as a handy resource for undergraduates who are interested in pursuing a graduate degree ENDORSEMENTS This book will be helpful not only for students seeking a meaningful experience in graduate and professional school but perhaps more importantly institutions that desire to create productive pathways for Black students to the advanced degree workplace The chapters unpack important lived experiences that should be carefully considered Jerlando F L Jackson University of Wisconsin Madison The Black Student s Pathway to Graduate Study and Beyond The Making of a Scholar makes key contributions to the extant literature By underscoring Black graduate students engagements with Academe the scholars provide nuanced perspective through an array of contextual lenses e g admissions race and gender socialization transition that are endemic to higher education in general and the Historically Black College and University HBCU setting in particular Critical Race Theory is the theoretical framework that provides scaffolding upon which the volume s scholars theorize best practices strategies and solutions that are authentic representations of their experiences The pathway is an appropriate metaphor for this book the scholars have provided illumination it is incumbent upon us to initiate the journey Fred A Bonner II Prairie View A M University

Teaching Politics Beyond the Book Robert W. Glover, Daniel Tagliarina, 2012-11-22 To teach political issues such as political struggle justice interstate conflict etc educators rely mostly on textbooks and lectures However many other forms of narrative exist that can elevate our understanding of such issues This innovative work seeks new ways to foster learning beyond the textbook and lecture model by using creative and new media including graphic novels animated films hip hop music Twitter and more Discussing the opportunities these media offer to teach and engage students about politics the work presents concrete ways on how to use them along with teaching and assessment strategies all tested in the classroom The contributors are dedicated educators from various types of institutions whose essays span a variety of political topics and examine how non traditional texts can promote critical thinking and intellectual growth among students in colleges and universities The first of its kind to discuss a wide range of alternative texts and media the book will be a valuable resource to anyone seeking to develop innovative curricula and engage their students in the study of politics Writing + the Brief

 Enos, Keith D. Miller, Jill McCracken, 2003-01-30 In this collection of original essays editors Theresa Enos and Keith D Miller join their contributors a veritable who's who in composition scholarship in seeking to illuminate and complicate many of the tensions present in the field of rhetoric and composition The contributions included here emphasize key issues in past and present work setting the stage for future thought and study The book also honors the late Jim Corder a major figure in the development of the rhetoric and composition discipline In the spirit of Corder's unfinished work the contributors to this volume absorb probe stretch redefine and interrogate classical modern and postmodern rhetorics and challenge their limitations Beyond Postprocess and Postmodernism Essays on the Spaciousness of Rhetoric will be of interest to scholars teachers and students in rhetoric and composition English and communication studies Offering a provocative discussion of postprocess composition theories and pedagogies and postmodern rhetorics as well as the first thorough consideration of Jim Corder's contributions this work is certain to influence the course of future study and research Beyond Resistance! Youth Activism and Community Change Pedro Noguera, Julio Cammarota, Shawn Ginwright, 2013-05-13 The failure of current policy to address important quality of life issues for urban youth remains a substantial barrier to civic participation educational equity and healthy adulthood This volume brings together the work of leading urban youth scholars to highlight the detrimental impact of zero tolerance policies on young people's educational experience and well being Inspired by the conviction that urban youth have the right to more equitable educational and social resources and political representation Beyond Resistance offers new insights into how to increase the effectiveness of youth development and education programs and how to create responsive youth policies at the local state and federal level
