Caplan, Ann Johns, 2019-04-26 This volume was written to make the case for changes in second language writing practices away from the five paragraph essay and toward purposeful meaningful writing instruction As the volume editors say If you have already rejected the five paragraph essay we offer validation and classroom tested alternatives If you are new to teaching L2 writing we introduce critical issues you will need to consider as you plan your lessons and as you consider review the textbooks and handbooks that continue to promote the teaching of the five paragraph essay If you need ammunition to present to colleagues and administrators we present theory research and pedagogy that will benefit students from elementary to graduate school If you are skeptical about our claims we invite you to review the research presented here and consider what your students could do beyond writing a five paragraph essay if you enacted these changes in practice Part 1 discusses what the five paragraph essay is not it is not a very old established form of writing it is not a genre and it is not universal Part 2 looks at writing practices to show the essay's ineffectiveness in elementary schools secondary schools first year writing classes university writing courses undergraduate discipline courses and graduate school Part 3 looks beyond the classroom at testing At the end of each chapter the authors all well known in the field of second language writing suggest changes to teaching practices based on their theoretical approach and classroom experience The book closes by reviewing some of the major questions raised in the book by exploring which questions have been left unanswered and by offering suggestions for teachers who want to move away from the five paragraph essay An assignment sequence for genre aware writing instruction is included Policy Regimes Tyler S. Branson, 2022-04-20 Engaging education policy from kindergarten to college Author Tyler S Branson argues that education reform initiatives in the twentieth century can be understood in terms of historical shifts in the ideas interests and governing arrangements that inform the teaching of writing Today policy regimes of accountability shape education reform programs such as Common Core in K 12 and Dual Enrollment in postsecondary institutions This book reopens the conversation between policy makers and writing teachers empirically describing the field's institutional historical relationship to policy and the ways teachers work on a daily basis to carry out policy Federal and state accountability policy significantly shapes classrooms before teachers even enter them but Branson argues the classroom is where teachers leverage disciplinary knowledge about writing to bridge partner with support and sometimes resist education policies Branson deftly blends policy critique archival analysis and participant observation to offer the first scholarly treatment of the National Council of Teachers of English NCTE Washington Task Force as well as a rare empirical study of a dual enrollment course offered in a high school This book s macro and micro level analysis of education policy reveals how writing teachers researchers and administrators can strengthen their commitments to successfully teaching their students across all levels of education while deepening their understanding of the ways education policy helps and hinders those commitments Writing Behind Every Door Heather Wolpert-Gawron,2014-04-24 For students to become college ready writers they must be exposed to writing throughout the school day not just in English class This practical book shows teachers in all subject areas how to meet the Common Core State Standards and make writing come alive in the classroom Award winning educator Heather Wolpert Gawron provides effective and exciting ideas for teaching argument writing informational writing project based writing and writing with technology Each chapter is filled with strategies prompts and rubrics you can use immediately Special Features A variety of writing strategies that work in any subject area Tips for developing meaningful prompts Diagrams and templates that you can use with your students Rubrics for assessing writing as well as ideas for having students create their own rubrics Samples of student work in different formats Ideas for teaching students to break the Google homepage habit and conduct effective research Cross curricular writing assignments for science history ELA electives and PE Suggestions for teaching summary writing an essential academic skill Ideas for staff professional development on Common Core writing Reaching All Writers Joanne Baird Giordano,Holly Hassel,Jennifer Heinert,Cassandra Phillips,2024-02-21 Reaching All Writers brings together decades of writing studies experience research and scholarship to help organize first year writing courses around inclusive teaching practices and foundational concepts that support disciplinary learning for all college writers including students who have been excluded from more selective higher education institutions Using threshold concepts and transfer as a foundation the authors provide an invaluable resource for multiple contexts instructors working off the tenure track and or at multiple institutions two year college programs without a writing program administrator and writing program graduate teaching assistant training courses Each chapter includes an overview of a threshold concept disciplinary background readings practical teaching strategies assignment and learning activity ideas assessment principles examples from student and instructor perspectives and questions for reflection and discussion Reaching All Writers describes effective teaching practices to help all college writing instructors regardless of their institutional contexts make changes that support equitable and inclusive learning opportunities with a focus on teaching students whose backgrounds and learning experiences are different from those with more educational or economic privilege Both new and experienced teachers adapting first year college writing courses will find the book s blend of practical strategies and disciplinary knowledge a useful companion for facilitating new classroom and program needs or designing new teaching assistant training courses The Problem with Education Technology (Hint: It's Not the Technology) Ben Fink, Robin Brown, 2016-02-01 Education is in crisis at least so we hear And at the center of this crisis is technology New technologies like computer based classroom instruction online K 12 schools MOOCs massive open online courses and automated essay scoring may be our last great hope or the greatest threat we have ever faced In The Problem with Education Technology Ben Fink and Robin Brown look behind the hype to explain the problems and potential of these technologies Focusing on the case of automated essay scoring they explain the technology how it works and what it does and doesn't do They explain its origins its evolution both in the classroom and in our culture and the controversy that surrounds it Most significantly they expose the real problem the complicity of teachers and curriculum builders in creating an education system so mechanical that machines can in fact often replace humans and how teachers students and other citizens can work together to solve it Offering a new perspective on the change that educators can hope organize and lobby for The Problem with Education Technology challenges teachers and activists on our side even as it provides new evidence to counter the profit making labor saving logics that drive the current push for technology in the classroom
