Writings From Prison Bobby Sands Writings:

Writings From Prison Bobby Sands Trust,1998-01-01 In this book the author chronicles the abuse by the British state of emergency laws harassment and intimidation of civilians injuries and deaths caused by rubber and plastic bullets collusion between British security forces British intelligence and loyalist paramilitaries unjust killings and murders by the security forces excessive punishments and degrading strip searches in prisons abuses ignored by all but a handful of individuals and civil rights organisations The Writings of Bobby Sands Bobby Sands,1981 Contemporary Irish Republican Prison Writing L. Whalen,2007-11-26 As it traces the textual history of the works of authors like Bobby Sands and Gerry Adams this book analyses Republican resistance to disciplinary structures demonstrating the ways in which prisoners appropriate space through discursive strategies Jailtacht Diarmait Mac Giolla Chríost,2012-05-15 This book tells the dramatic and often surprising story of the learning of the Irish language by Irish Republican prisoners held in the infamous H block cells during the bloody political conflict in Northern Ireland Using research methods and techniques the author closely analyses the emergence of the Irish language amongst republican prisoners and ex prisoners in Northern Ireland from the 1970s up until the present This pioneering study shows how the language was used exclusively in parts of the prison despite the efforts of the prison authorities to suppress the language and the dramatic impact this had on Irish society Drawing on interviews with the prisoners and various other materials Mac Giolla Chríost shows how these developments gave rise to the popular coinage of the term Jailtacht a deformation of Gaeltacht the official Irish speaking districts of the Republic of Ireland to describe this unique linguistic phenomenon Ending the Troubles John M. Burney,Andrew J. Auge,2024-10-29 In June 1996 the British government convened multiparty talks trying to establish peace within Northern Ireland after thirty years of bloody civil war based on religious cultural political and economic tensions known as The Troubles The talks included political parties from the two factions central to the conflict Unionists largely Protestants committed to retaining Northern Ireland within the United Kingdom and Nationalists largely Catholics committed to the reunification of Northern Ireland with the independent Republic of Ireland Fundamental questions on national identity and democracy quickly turned these proceedings into faction bickering thus failing to produce any substantive progress The emergence of new leaders in 1997 Tony Blair prime minister of Great Britain and Bertie Ahern taoiseach in the Republic of Ireland created an opportunity for reenergizing the talks chaired by the former US senator George Mitchell with all parties making a concerted effort to reach a viable resolution among Nationalists and Unionists In the game students will represent the major parties in Northern Ireland as they reconvene at the multiparty talks in 1997 to find ways to reconcile two competing visions of Northern Irish nationalism or at least find a way for each community to tolerate one another s participation in a common constitutional arrangement Much is at stake for another failure could lead to a full resumption of the civil war Irish Women's Prison Writing Red Washburn,2022-11-16 This book explores 50 years of Irish women s prison writing 1960s 2010s connecting the work of women leaders and writers in Northern Ireland during the Troubles This volume analyzes political communications petitions news coverage prison files personal letters poetry and short prose and memoirs highlighting the personal correspondence autobiographical narratives and poetry of the following key women Bernadette McAliskey Eileen Hickey Mairead Farrell Seán Darragh Ella O'Dwyer Martina Anderson Dolours Price Marian McGlinchey formerly Marian Price and Eibhlín Ní Giolla Easpaig Ann and Eileen Gillespie Roseleen Walsh and Margaretta D'Arcy This text builds on different fields and discourses to reimagine gender and genre as central to an interdisciplinary and intersectional prison archive Centering Irish women's prison writings in order to challenge canonization in history and literature this volume argues that women's lives and words offer a different view of gender and nation as well as offer a fuller and more inclusive archive of Irish history and literature Additionally this book will point to the ways in which their politics of everyday life and their cultural work is a form of anti colonial civil rights feminism for it speaks truth to power in a world in which compliance and silence are valued Overall this text focuses on rethinking and recasting women's voices and words in order to document and promote the ongoing Irish freedom struggle from an abolitionist feminist perspective

A History of Irish Working-Class Writing Michael Pierse, 2018 Michael Pierse is Lecturer in Irish literature at Queen's University Belfast His research mainly explores the writing and cultural production of Irish working class life Over recent years this work has expanded into new multidisciplinary themes and international contexts including the study of festivals digital methodologies in public humanities and theatre as research practices Michael has contributed to a range of national and international publications is the author of Writing Ireland's Working Class Dublin after O'Casey 2011 and has been awarded several Arts and Humanities Research Council awards and the Vice-Chancellor's Award at Queen's

Hunger and Postcolonial Writing Muzna Rahman, 2022-08-17 Hunger and Postcolonial Writing explores contemporary postcolonial fiction and life writing from various geopolitical contexts The focus of this work is hunger individuated in the self-imposed starvation of the hunger protester and on a mass scale in the form of famine and food insecurity It considers the hungry colonial and postcolonial body examines its textual forms and historical trajectories and situates it within the food security context of imperialism and its legacies This book is the first monograph length study of hunger within a postcolonial world literary context Its transcolonial focus produces comparative readings across postcolonial writings facilitating productive analyses of the operations of imperialism and its aftereffects across heterogeneous zones of colonialism This project reads hunger as defined by the social cultural historical and economic engagements produced by colonial and postcolonial encounters Examining the starving colonized body through Cartesian models of somatic subjectivity and considering how this body is mediated by post-Enlightenment discourses of Modernity and progress this work interrogates the contradictions produced by the starving colonial body as it is positioned between the possibility of radical protest and prescriptive colonial discourse This book will be of interest to Gastrocritical and Postcolonial scholars and students and to Food scholars more broadly

Irish Migrants in New

Communities Mícheál Ó hAodha, Máirtín Ó Catháin, 2014-05-16 Irish migrants in new communities Seeking the Fair Land comprises the second collection of essays by these editors exploring fresh aspects and perspectives on the subject of the Irish diaspora This volume edited by Máirtín Ó Catháin and Mícheál Ó hAodha develops many of the oral history themes of the first book and concentrates more on issues surrounding the adaptation of migrants to new or host environments and cultures These new places often have a jarring effect as well as a welcoming air and the Irish bring their own interpretations hostilities and suspicions all of which are explored in a fascinating and original number of new perspectives 'The Age-Old Struggle' Jack Hepworth, 2021-09-15 This is a wide ranging analysis of the internal dynamics of Irish republicanism between the outbreak of the Troubles in 1969 and the Good Friday Agreement of 1998 Engaging a vast array of hitherto unused primary sources alongside original and re used oral history interviews The Age Old Struggle draws upon the words and writings of more than 250 Irish republicans This book scrutinises the movement's historical and contemporary complexity the variety of influences within Irish republicanism and divergent republican responses at pivotal moments in the conflict Yet it also assesses the centripetal forces which connected republican organisations through decades of struggle Across five thematic chapters The Age Old Struggle offers new insights into republicanism's multi layered interactions with the global 68 tactical and strategic change revolutionary socialism feminism and religion Drawing on political periodicals ephemera and interviews with activists throughout the ranks of several republican groups the book roots its analysis in republicanism's temporal and spatial complexity It contends that the cultural significance of place interactions with class and revolutionary politics and shifting intra movement networks are essential to understanding the movement's dynamics since 1969 Prison Writing and the Literary World Michelle Kelly, Claire Westall, 2020-10-27 Prison Writing and the Literary World tackles international prison writing and writing about imprisonment in relation to questions of literary representation and formal aesthetics the value or values of literature textual censorship and circulation institutional networks and literary critical methodologies It offers scholarly essays exploring prison writing in relation to wartime internment political imprisonment resistance and independence creation regimes of terror and personal narratives of development and awakening that grapple with race class and gender Cutting across geospatial divides while drawing on nation and region specific expertise it asks readers to connect the questions examples and challenges arising from prison writing and writing about imprisonment within the UK and the USA but also across continental Europe Stalinist Russia the Americas Africa and the Middle East It also includes critical reflection pieces from authors editors educators and theatre practitioners with experience of the fraught testing and potentially inspiring links between prison and the literary world Reclaiming Humanity in Palestinian Hunger Strikes Ashjan Ajour, 2021-12-14 2022 Winner of the Palestine Book Awards Rooted in feminist ethnography and decolonial feminist theory this book explores the subjectivity of Palestinian hunger strikers in Israeli prisons as shaped by resistance Ashjan Ajour examines how these prisoners use their bodies in anti colonial resistance what determines this mode of radical struggle the meanings they ascribe to their actions and how they constitute their subjectivity while undergoing extreme bodily pain and starvation These hunger strikes which embody decolonisation and liberation politics frame the post Oslo period in the wake of the decline of the national struggle against settler colonialism and the fragmentation of the Palestinian movement Providing narrative and analytical insights into embodied resistance and tracing the formation of revolutionary subjectivity the book sheds light on the participants views of the hunger strike as they move beyond customary understandings of the political into the realm of the spiritualisation of struggle Drawing on Foucault s conception of the technologies of the self Fanon s writings on anti colonial violence and Badiou s militant philosophy Ajour problematises these concepts from the vantage point of the Palestinian hunger strike

Beckett and Contemporary Irish Writing Stephen Watt,2009-06-18 This book searches for the Beckettian impulse in Irish literature by tracing Beckett s legacy through a selection of contemporary writers

Witness in the Era of Mass Incarceration Doran Larson,2017-07-17 Witness in the Era of Mass Incarceration works from the premise that if the law establishes and maintains both its practical and symbolic authority on the basis of its monopoly on legally sanctioned violence and the suffering threatened and delivered by such violence then we cannot know the full human cost or concrete moral status of any legal state without human witness to the depth and manner of suffering meted out by such violence The prison writer stands in the position to offer such witness The prison writer knows the law s violence in the flesh For every other writer reflection upon the degree and manner of suffering meted out under legal sanction that is reflection upon the full human cost of the contemporary legal order is necessarily speculative In close readings of first person witness from prisons in the U S Ireland and Africa Witness in the Era of Mass Incarceration discovers literary tropes that chart at once local national and transnational conditions of carceral experience the extant conditions of legalized suffering In exhibiting the labor required to move from institutionalized abjection to the minimum requirements of rights bearing personhood this witness offers the sole credible vision of the possibility of a post carceral understanding of freedom

Writing Resistance in Northern Ireland Aimée Walsh,2024-04-02 Writing Resistance in Northern Ireland is an examination of feminist republicanism s in the north of Ireland between 1975 and 1986 Republican prison protest was rife during this period and fractures opened up between the feminist and republican movements Despite their shared objective of self determination the two movements did not achieve a natural or total congruence While it has been argued that there is a disjuncture between feminism and nationalism this book argues for a new perspective on feminist republicanism s in the north and tells the story of a niche collective of republican feminists who came to the fore during the Troubles and sought bodily political and economic autonomy The book examines source material including historical narratives jail writings journalism documentary film and literary texts and paints a vivid picture of a movement of republican feminist women s writing concerned with political crisis gender and the nation Aim e Walsh uses the plural republicanism s as a way of encapsulating the varied iterations of nationalist feminism from militant republicanism in Armagh Gaol to a non violent literary nationalist feminism This examination of the interaction between nationalism and gender shows how the study of women's writing can offer a paradigm shift in the history of the Troubles as seen through a feminist lens The Field Day Anthology of Irish Writing Seamus Deane, Andrew Carpenter, Angela Bourke, Jonathan Williams, 1991 The Politics of Memoir and the Northern Ireland Conflict Stephen Hopkins, 2013 This book examines memoir writing by many of the key political actors in the Northern Irish Troubles 1969-1998 and argues that memoir has been a neglected dimension of the study of the legacies of the violent conflict It investigates these sources in the context of ongoing disputes over how to interpret Northern Ireland's recent past A careful reading of these memoirs can provide insights into the lived experience and retrospective judgments of some of the main protagonists of the conflict The period of relative peace rests upon an uneasy calm in Northern Ireland Many people continue to inhabit contested ideological territories and in their strategies for shaping the narrative telling of the conflict key individuals within the Protestant Unionist and Catholic Irish Nationalist communities can appear locked into exclusive and self-justifying discourses In such circumstances while some memoirists have been genuinely self-critical many others have utilised a post-conflict language of societal The Language of Protest Mary Lynne Gasaway Hill, 2018-04-16 Rooted in the performative of Speech Act Theory this interdisciplinary study crafts a new model to compare the work we do with words when we protest across genres from different geographies and languages Rich with illustrative examples from Turkey U S West Germany Romania Guatemala Great Britain and Northern Ireland it examines the language of protest chants songs poetry and prose with an innovative use of analytical tools that will advance current theory Operating at the intersection of linguistic pragmatics and critical discourse analysis this book provides fresh insights on interdisciplinary topics including power identity legitimacy and the Social Contract In doing so it will appeal to students and scholars of sociolinguistics pragmatics and critical discourse analysis in addition to researchers working in sociology political science discourse cultural and communication studies Radicalization Melissa Dearey, 2009-12-04 Expanding the influence of auto biography studies into cultural criminology this book addresses the origins processes and cultures of terrorist criminality and political resistance in a globalized world Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century David Pierce, 2000 With five Nobel Prize winners seven Pulitzer Prize winners and two Booker Prize winning novelists modern Irish writing has contributed something special and permanent to our understanding of the twentieth century Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century provides a useful comprehensive and pleasurable introduction to modern Irish literature in a single volume Organized chronologically by decade this anthology provides the reader with a unique sense of the development and richness of Irish writing and of the society it reflected It embraces all forms of writing not only the major forms of drama fiction and verse but such material as travel writing personal memoirs journalism interviews and radio plays to offer the reader a complete and wonderfully varied sense of Ireland's contribution our literary heritage David Pierce has selected major literary figures as well as neglected ones and includes many writers from the Irish diaspora The range of material is enormous and ensures that work that is inaccessible or out of print is now easily available The book is a delightful compilation including many well known pieces and captivating discoveries which anyone interested in literature will long enjoy browsing and dipping into
