Lâle Demirtürk, 2019-08-09 African American Novels in the Black Lives Matter Era Transgressive Performativity of Black Vulnerability as Praxis in Everyday Life explores the undoing of whiteness by black people who dissociate from scripts of black criminality through radical performative reiterations of black vulnerability. It studies five novels that challenge the embodied discursive practices of whiteness in interracial social encounters showing how they use strategic performances of Blackness to enable subversive practices in everyday life which is constructed and governed by white mechanisms of racialized control The agency portrayed in these novels opens up alternative spaces of Blackness to impact the social world and effects transformative change as a forceful critique of everyday life African American Novels in the Black Lives Matter Era shows how these novels reformulate the problem of black vulnerability as a constitutive source of the right to life in their refusal of subjection to vulnerability enacted by white institutional and individual forms of violence It positions a white black encounter oriented reading of these neo resistance novels of the Black Lives Matter era as a critique of everyday life in an effort to explore spaces of radical performativity of blackness to make happen social change and transformation History of the African American Novel Valerie Babb, 2017-07-31 This History is intended for a broad audience seeking knowledge of how novels interact with and influence their cultural landscape Its interdisciplinary approach will appeal to those interested in novels and film graphic novels novels and popular culture transatlantic blackness and the interfacing of race class gender and aesthetics A Deeper Love Inside Sister Sister Souljah, 2014 The stunning sequel to The Coldest Winter Ever Sharp tongued quick witted Porsche worships her sister Winter Cut from the same cloth as her father Ricky Santiaga Porsche is also a natural born hustler Passionate and loyal to the extreme she refuses to accept her new life in group homes foster care and juvenile detention after her family is torn apart Unselfish she pushes to get back everything that ever belonged to her wealthy loving family Hollywood Marine-Vision Asmar Muhammad, 2018-03-14 This is a wild adventure about a young black male born in a military family who sends him on a three year tour in the United Kingdom He
