Sister Species Women Animals And Social Justice:

Sister Species Lisa Kemmerer, 2011-06-08 There is a very strong association between women animals and activism In Women Social Justice and Animal Advocacy activist Lisa A Kemmerer presents the narratives of fourteen ecofeminist activists who describe their own experiences in the field often from the perspective of discovering the extent of a particular kind of animal oppression and resolving to do something about it The narratives are bold and gripping sometimes horrifying and cover a range of topics relating to animal rights and liberation The writers discuss contemporary cockfighting factory farming orphaned primates in Africa the wild bird trade scientific experimentation on animals laws against dangerous dogs and violence against baby seals Sister Species provides a wide survey of what women are doing in the animal activism movement The writers ask readers to rethink how we view animals in our daily lives and how we can take action to protect them Kemmerer s introduction explains why she collected these particular stories and how she views the relationship between feminism and animal suffering The foreword is by Carol J Adams author of The Sexual Politics of Meat 1990 Neither Man nor Beast Feminism and the Defense of Animals 1994 The Feminist Care Tradition in Animal Ethics A Reader 2007 and many other books None of these essays has been previously published Feminist Animal and Multispecies Studies: Critical Perspectives on Food and Eating , 2023-12-04 This book develops critical feminist animal and multispecies studies across various societal and environmental contexts The chapters discuss timely questions broadly related to food and eating stemming from connections drawn between critical animal studies feminist theory and multispecies studies The themes explored include trans inclusive ecofeminism decolonial perspectives to veganism links between the critique of ableism and animal exploitation alternatives to dominant Western masculinities invested in meat consumption and the politics of sex and purity in factory farming The book explores responses to interlinked forms of exploitation by focusing on sites such as sanctuaries educational institutions social media and animal advocacy Animals and the Environment Lisa Kemmerer, 2015-05-01 Contemporary Earth and animal activists rarely collaborate perhaps because environmentalists focus on species and ecosystems while animal advocates look to the individual and neither seems to have much respect for the other This diverse collection of essays highlights common ground between earth and animal advocates most notably the protection of wildlife and personal dietary choice If earth and animal advocates move beyond philosophical differences and resultant divergent priorities turning attention to shared goals both will be more effective and both animals and the environment will benefit Given the undeniable seriousness of the environmental problems that we face including climate change and species extinction it is essential that activists join forces Drawing on a wide range of issues and disciplines ranging from wildlife management hunting and the work of NGOs to ethics ecofeminism religion and animal welfare this volume provides a stimulating collection of ideas and challenges for anyone else who cares about the environment or animals

Critical Animal Studies and Social Justice Amber E. George, Anthony J. Nocella II, 2022-03-03 An essential read for activists community organizers and justice scholars Critical Animal Studies and Social Justice Critical Theory Dismantling Speciesism and Total Liberation is a collection that combines scholarship and activism in nine ground breaking and provocative chapters The book includes contributions from around the world influenced by critical theory feminism social justice political theory media studies environmental justice food justice disability studies and Black liberation By promoting total liberation and liberatory politics these essays challenge the reader to think about new approaches to justice equity diversity and inclusion The contributors examine and disrupt many of the exclusionary assumptions and behaviors by those working toward justice and liberation encouraging the reader to reflect on their own thoughts and actions

The Rhetorical Construction of Vegetarianism Cristina Hanganu-Bresch, 2023-03-02 This book explores themes in the rhetoric of vegetarian discourse A vegan practice may help mitigate crises such as climate change global health challenges and sharpening socioeconomic disparities by ensuring both fairness in the treatment of animals and food justice for marginalized populations How the message is spread is crucial for these aims Vegan practices thus uncover tensions between individual dietary choices and social justice activism between ego and eco between human and animal between capitalism and environmentalism and within the larger universe of theoretical and practical ethics The chapters apply rhetorical methodologies to understand vegan vegetarian discourse emphasizing for example vegan vegetarian rhetoric through the lens of polyphony the role of intersectional rhetoric in becoming vegan as well as ecofeminist semiotic and discourse theory approaches to veganism The book aims to show that a rhetorical understanding of vegetarian and vegan discourse is crucial for the goals of movements promoting veganism The book is intended for a wide interdisciplinary audience of scholars researchers and individuals interested in veganism food and media studies rhetorical studies human animal studies cultural studies and related disciplines It urges readers to examine vegan discourses seriously not just as a matter of personal choice or taste but as one vital for intersectional justice and our planetary survival

Routledge Handbook of Gender and Environment Sherilyn MacGregor, 2017-07-14 The Routledge Handbook of Gender and Environment gathers together state of the art theoretical reflections and empirical research from leading researchers and practitioners working in this transdisciplinary and transnational academic field Over the course of the book these contributors provide critical analyses of the gender dimensions of a wide range of timely and challenging topics from sustainable development and climate change politics to queer ecology and interspecies ethics in the so called Anthropocene Presenting a comprehensive overview of the development of the field from early political critiques of the male domination of women and nature in the 1980s to the sophisticated intersectional and inclusive analyses of the present the volume is divided into four parts Part I Foundations Part II Approaches Part III Politics policy and practice Part IV Futures Comprising chapters written by forty contributors with different perspectives and working in a wide range of research contexts around the world this Handbook will serve as a vital resource for scholars students and practitioners in environmental studies gender studies human geography and the environmental humanities and social sciences more broadly

The Postcolonial Animal Evan Mwangi, 2019-09-06 Despite the central role that animals play in African writing and daily life African literature and African thinkers remain conspicuously absent from the field of animal studies The Postcolonial Animal African Literature and Posthuman Ethics demonstrates the importance of African writing to animal studies by analyzing how postcolonial African writing including folktales religion philosophy and anticolonial movements has been mobilized to call for humane treatment of nonhuman others Mwangi illustrates how African authors grapple with the possibility of an alternative to eating meat and how they present postcolonial animal consuming cultures as shifting toward an embrace of cultural and political practices that avoid the use of animals and minimize animal suffering The Postcolonial Animal analyzes texts that imagine a world where animals are not abused or used as a source of food clothing or labor and that offer instruction in how we might act responsibly and how we should relate to others both human and nonhuman in order to ensure a world free of oppression The result is an equitable world where even those who are utterly foreign to us are accorded respect and where we recognize the rights of all marginalized groups

Beyond Nature's Housekeepers Nancy C. Unger, 2012-10-05 From pre Columbian times to the environmental justice movements of the present women and men frequently responded to the environment and environmental issues in profoundly different ways Although both environmental history and women s history are flourishing fields explorations of the synergy produced by the interplay between environment and sex sexuality and gender are just beginning Offering more than biographies of great women in environmental history Beyond Nature s Housekeepers examines the intersections that shaped women s unique environmental concerns and activism and that framed the way the larger culture responded Women featured include Native Americans colonists enslaved field workers pioneers homemakers municipal housekeepers immigrants hunters nature writers soil conservationists scientists migrant laborers nuclear protestors and environmental justice activists As women they fared thought and acted in ways complicated by social political and economic norms as well as issues of sexuality and childbearing Nancy C Unger reveals how women have played a unique role for better and sometimes for worse in the shaping of the American environment

Animals in the Anthropocene Edited by the Human Animal Research Network Editorial Collective, 2015-06-16 Much of the discussion on the Anthropocene has centred upon anthropogenic global warming and climate change and the urgency of political and social responses to this problem Animals in the Anthropocene critical perspectives on non human futures shows that assessing the effects of human activity on the planet requires more than just the quantification of ecological impacts towards the categorisation of geological eras It requires recognising and evaluating a wide range of territories and terrains full of non human agents and interests and meanings exposed to the profound forces of change that give their name to the Anthropocene It is from the perspective of the animal question asking how best to think and live with animals that Animals in the Anthropocene seeks to interrogate the Anthropocene as a concept discourse and state of affairs The term Anthropocene is a useful device for drawing attention to the devastations wreaked by anthropocentrism and advancing a relational model for human and non human life The effects on animals of human political and economic systems continue to expand and intensify in numerous domains and in ways that not only cause suffering and loss but that also produce new forms of life and alter the very nature of species As anthropogenic change affects the more than human world in innumerable ways we must accept responsibility for the damage we have caused and the debt we owe to non human species      Animals, Ethics, and Language Rebekah

Humphreys,2023-06-20 With an ever growing body of evidence on the links between different oppressions never have the debates in Critical Animal Studies surrounding intersectionality in relation to animal ethics been more important In particular the arguments related to anthropomorphic attributes of mentality to other than humans promise to provide fruitful new ground for re assessing human animal relations This book maps the central debates surrounding anthropomorphism in relation to our descriptions of animals their lives animal mentality and meaningful communication in the nonhuman world Rebekah Humphreys synthesizes the work of critical animal theorists philosophers and cognitive ethologists and provides a critical account of how the debates concerning anthropomorphism play a key role in a proper understanding of animal ethics

Education Gender and Climate for Youth Tudás Alapítvány,2023-11-17 The Earth s climate is heavily changing and failure to limit warming to below 2 C could make further impact in the climate system irreversible and characterised by cataclysmic consequences The adverse impacts of climate emergency continue to be too much of a burden for the poorest and most vulnerable especially girls and women with fewer opportunities Despite growing recognition of these differential vulnerabilities as well as the unique experiences and skills that women and men bring to environmental sustainability efforts the former still have less economic political and legal influence and are therefore less able to cope than those who are most exposed to the adverse effects of climate emergency On the other hand girls and women are powerful agents of change and continue to make increasingly significant contributions to sustainability despite existing structural changes and socio cultural barriers This guide will serve as an approximation towards the above mentioned issues and is destined for Gender and social inclusion specialists seeking a broader range of tips tactics tools and exercises with which to increase the awareness understanding and capacity of other colleagues to integrate gender and social inclusion into climate action Climate degrowth and sustainability practitioners with some knowledge of and openness to gender and social inclusion issues who can use the modules and the references contained within them to deepen their own knowledge and thus gain confidence to use the materials to train others Youth workers and young leaders who are responsible for designing and teaching climate change resilience adaptation and mitigation interventions The materials in this Guide have very broad applicability in these domains Given the evidence we present on the importance of gender sensitivity and social inclusion in the implementation of effective climate projects and programmes we assert that the approaches suggested are not just for people with a formal mandate on these issues the approaches are for everyone working on climate and social justice      Confronting Animal Exploitation Kim

Socha, Sarah Jane Blum, 2013-02-14 As animal exploitation increases animal liberation issues are of growing concern as seen through the rise of veganism academic disciplines devoted to animal issues and mainstream critiques of factory farms Yet as the dialogues debates and books continue to grow the voices of street level activists not academics journalists or vegan chefs are rarely heard This volume broadens animal liberation dialogues by offering the arguments challenges inspiration and narratives of grassroots activists The essays show what animal advocacy looks like from a collective of individuals living in and around Minnesota's Twin Cities the essayists however write of issues both personal and political that resound on a global scale This collection provides a platform for rank and file activists to explain why and how they dedicate their time and what is being done for animals on a local level that can translate to global efforts to end animal exploitation Animal Oppression and Capitalism David Nibert, 2017-09-08 This important two volume set unapologetically documents how capitalism results in the oppression of animals ranging from fish and chickens to dogs elephants and kangaroos as well as in environmental destruction vital resource depletion and climate change Most traditional narratives portray humanity's use of other animals as natural and necessary for human social development and present the idea that capitalism is generally a positive force in the world But is this worldview accurate or just a convenient easy to accept way to ignore what is really happening a systematic oppression of animals that simultaneously results in environmental destruction and places insurmountable obstacles in the path to a sustainable and peaceful future David Nibert's Animal Oppression and Capitalism is a timely two volume set that calls into question the capitalist system at a point in human history when inequality and the imbalance in the distribution of wealth are growing domestically and internationally Expert contributors show why the oppression of animals particularly the use of other animals as food is increasingly being linked to unfavorable climate change and the depletion of fresh water and other vital resources Readers will also learn about the tragic connections between the production of animal products and global hunger and expanded regional violence and warfare and they will understand how many common human health problems including heart attacks strokes and various forms of cancer develop as a result of consuming animal products Queer and Animal Provocations Jessica Ison, 2024-12-16 Queer and Animal Provocations explores encounters between queer liberation and animal subjugation to discover how the struggles for acceptable queer identity are entwined with entrenching animal exploitation To uncover this connection Jessica Ison interrogates queer citizenship animal justice colonial constructs of the human sexual violence animal abuse registries and queer movements for liberation This book disentangles the exploitation of animals from queer liberation arguing that scholars and activists should take action through solidarity and mutual support that abolishes cages and systems of injustice Critical Animal and Media Studies Núria Almiron, Matthew Cole, Carrie P. Freeman, 2015-10-14 This book aims to put the speciesism debate and the treatment of non human animals on the agenda of critical media studies and to put media studies on the agenda of animal ethics researchers Contributors examine the convergence of media and animal ethics from theoretical philosophical discursive social constructionist and political economic perspectives The book is divided into three sections foundations representation and responsibility outlining the different disciplinary approaches application to media studies and covering how non human animals and the relationship between humans and non humans are represented by the mass media concluding with suggestions for how the media as a major producer of cultural norms and values related to non human animals and how we treat them might improve such representations

Climate Change Denial and Public Relations Núria Almiron, Jordi Xifra, 2019-06-26 This is the first book on climate change denial and lobbying that combines the ideology of denial and the role of anthropocentrism in the study of interest groups and communication strategy Climate Change Denial and Public Relations Strategic Communication and Interest Groups in Climate Inaction is a critical approach to climate change denial from a strategic communication perspective The book aims to provide an in depth analysis of how strategic communication by interest groups is contributing to climate change inaction It does this from a multidisciplinary perspective that expands the usual approach of climate change denialism and introduces a critical reflection on the roots of the problem including the ethics of the denialist ideology and the rhetoric and role of climate change advocacy Topics addressed include the power of persuasive narratives and discourses constructed to support climate inaction by lobbies and think tanks the dominant human supremacist view and the patriarchal roots of denialists and advocates of climate change alike the knowledge coalitions of the climate think tank networks the denial strategies related to climate change of the nuclear oil and agrifood lobbies the role of public relations firms the anthropocentric roots of public relations taboo topics such as human overpopulation and meat eating and the technological myth This unique volume is recommended reading for students and scholars of communication and public relations

Ecofeminism on the Edge Goran Đurđević, Suzana Marjanić, 2024-02-02 With a special focus on education and underrepresented geographical locations this book is an inclusive collection of theories discourses art identities and practices related to this discipline

One Rights: Human and Animal Rights in the Anthropocene Saskia Stucki, 2023-01-01 This is an open access book Animals are the traditional blind spot in human rights theory This book brings together the seemingly disparate discourses of human and animal rights and looks at emerging animal rights as new human rights It approaches the question whether animals can and should have human rights through a comprehensive review of contemporary human rights philosophy discussing both naturalistic and political justifications of human and animal rights On philosophical as well as practical grounds this book argues that there are compelling conceptual principled and prudential reasons for modernizing the human rights paradigm and integrating animals into its protective mandate Moreover this book proposes the novel One Rights approach as a new post human rights paradigm for the Anthropocene One Rights advances a holistic understanding of the indivisibility and interdependence of human and animal rights This book explores how the systematic subjugation exploitation and extermination of animals simultaneously contributes to some of the gravest social and environmental threats to human rights such as animalistic dehumanization and climate change This book submits that in light of their socio political and ecological interconnectedness human and animal rights are best protected in concert The themes of this book are part of a larger conversation about postanthropocentric legal paradigms emerging in the Anthropocene For human rights to survive in this era of anthropogenic crises we need to abandon the toxic ideology of human exceptionalism and embrace a more inclusive version of post human rights that tends to the nonhuman This book intends to show that a holistic One Rights approach promises to achieve better rights protective outcomes for humans animals and their shared planetary home Animals and Society Margo DeMello, 2021-04-13 Human animal studies is an interdisciplinary field that explores the spaces that animals occupy in human social and cultural worlds It examines the interactions humans and animals have with each other and the ways animal lives intersect with human societies Since existing social orders rely on the exploitation of animals to serve human needs the questions posed by human animal studies touch upon a wide range of fundamental issues Animals and Society provides a broad overview of this rapidly growing field Margo DeMello offers students and scholars a holistic and comprehensive picture of the state of inquiry into the relationships that exist between humans and other animals She considers interactions between animals and humans in social organizations such as the family the legal system and political and religious institutions A major focus is the social construction of animals in world cultures and the way in which these social meanings are used to reinforce and perpetuate hierarchical human relationships such as racism sexism and class privilege The book also examines how different human groups construct a range of identities for themselves and for others through animals This second edition of Animals and Society is fully updated and expanded throughout enhancing the book's relevance for student and activist readers alike It includes many new international examples all new case studies and updated supplementary readings Animals, Race, and Multiculturalism Luís Cordeiro-Rodrigues, Les Mitchell, 2017-12-20 This book focuses on multiculturalism racism and the interests of nonhuman animals Each are in their own right rapidly growing and controversial fields of enquiry but how do multiculturalism and racism intersect with the debate concerning animals and their interests This a deceptively simple question but one that is becoming ever more pressing as we examine our societal practices in a pluralistic world Collating the work of a diverse group of academics from across the world the book includes writing on a wide range of subjects and addressing contemporary issues in this critical arena Subjects covered include multiculturalism group rights and the limits of tolerance ethnocentrism and animals racism and discrimination and non Western alternatives to animal rights and welfare The book will be of interest to researchers lecturers and advanced students as well as range of social justice organisations government institutions animal activist organisations and environmental groups
