writing texts generally shorter than a sentence as complex powerful literary and visual works In the 1960s and 70s minimal and conceptual artists stripped language down to its most basic components the word and the letter Barbara Kruger Jenny Holzer Carl Andre Lawrence Weiner and others built lucrative careers from text based art Meanwhile poets and writers created works of minimal writing visual texts generally shorter than a sentence One poem by Aram Saroyan reads in its entirety eyeeye In absence of clutter Paul Stephens offers the first comprehensive account of minimal writing arguing that it is equal in complexity and power to better known more commercial text based art Minimal writing Stephens writes can be beguilingly simple on the surface but can also offer iterative reading experiences on multiple levels from the fleeting to the ponderous absence of clutter for example the entire text of a poem by Robert Grenier is both expressive and self descriptive Stephens first sets out a theoretical framework for reading and viewing minimal writing and then offers close readings of works of minimal writing by Saroyan Grenier Norman Pritchard Natalie Czech and others He reverse engineers recent works by Jen Bervin Craig Dworkin and Christian B k that draw on molecular biology and explores print on demand books by Holly Melgard code poetry by Nick Montfort Twitter based work by Allison Parrish and the use of Instagram by Hans Ulrich Obrist and Saroyan Text it seems is becoming ever more prevalent in visual art meanwhile poems are getting shorter When reading has become scanning a screen and writing tapping out a text absence of clutter invites us to reflect on how we read see and pay attention

De-cluttering and Simplifying Your Life Dueep Jyot Singh, John Davidson, 2017-08-21 De cluttering and Simplifying Your Life Table of Contents De cluttering and Simplifying Your Life Table of Contents Introduction The Concept of Relative Poverty The Value We Put on Material Goods Best Reasons for De cluttering Free Time Accumulation of things Systematic Clearing Financial Gain through Collections and Estate Sales What to Throw Away What to Keep What to Donate What to Sell Conclusion Author Bio Publisher Introduction Believe it or not the psychological aspect of having too many material possessions is one of the main reasons why so many people subconsciously feel tense jittery and an overpowering sense of being hemmed in with lots and lots of stuff around them You may not feel it but go into a room where you have lots of things What is your subconscious feeling Get me out of here What am I doing in all this clutter If you have that conscious and subconscious feeling with this one instant just think of that effect it has when taken long term where you are living in a room full of clutter and lots and lots of things piled on every available surface With so many things available to us today we like to add to our material possessions just because we can That also means more things to keep clean and dust free and also to store away in the drawers and cupboards The great thinkers philosophers and wise men of ancient times knew all about the value of simplicity with not many material possessions If you lived in the spot of 2000 years ago you would be very glad with just one piece of cloth to cover you some tools for agricultural farming one spear and one shield to protect your family and yourself and that is that And they were the most powerful lean mean fighting machines in the world of that time because their focus was on learning how to become a warrior and not filling up their lives with needless clutter
