Systems, East and West Vernon Valentine Palmer, Mohamed Y. Mattar, 2016-07-22 Advancing legal scholarship in the area of mixed legal systems as well as comparative law more generally this book expands the comparative study of the world's legal families to those of jurisdictions containing not only mixtures of common and civil law but also to those mixing Islamic and or traditional legal systems with those derived from common and or civil law traditions With contributions from leading experts in their fields the book takes us far beyond the usual focus of comparative law with analysis of a broad range of countries including relatively neglected and under researched areas The discussion is situated within the broader context of the ongoing development and evolution of mixed legal systems against the continuing tides of globalization on the one hand and on the other hand the emergence of Islamic governments in some parts of the Middle East the calls for a legal status for Islamic law in some European countries and the increasing focus on traditional and customary norms of governance in post colonial contexts This book will be an invaluable source for students and researchers working in the areas of comparative law legal pluralism the evolution of mixed legal systems and the impact of colonialism on contemporary legal systems It will also be an important resource for policy makers and analysts The Global Etiquette Guide to Africa and the Middle East Dean

Handbook of the history of the English language Augustus Henry Keane,1875 Dictionary of East European History Since 1945 Joseph Held,1994 Abortion Ecologies in Southern African Fiction Caitlin E. Stobie,2023-01-12 Focusing on texts from the late 1970s to the 1990s which document both changing attitudes to terminations of pregnancy and dramatic environmental medical and socio political developments during southern Africa s liberation struggles this book examines how four writers from Botswana South Africa and Zimbabwe address the ethics of abortion and reproductive choice Viewing recent fiction through the lens of new materialist theory which challenges conventional individual based notions of human rights by asserting that all matter holds agency this book argues that southern African women writers anticipate and exceed current feminist revivals of materialist thought Not only do the authors question contemporary discourse framing abortion as either a confirmation of a woman s right to choose or an unethical termination of human life but they challenge conventional understandings of development growth and time Through close readings of both literal gestation in the selected texts and the metaphorical reproduction of the post colonial nation this study advances the concept of reproductive agency creating a range of queer ecocritical alternatives to tropes such as those of the Mother Country Mother Africa or the birth of a nation This study situates abortion narratives by Wilma Stockenström translated by J M Coetzee Zo Wicomb Yvonne Vera and Bessie Head alongside contemporary postcolonial feminist theories melding traditional beliefs with materialist views to reconsider the future of reproductive health matters in southern Africa Merging queer ecocritical perspectives from materialism and postcolonialism this study will appeal to students and researchers in the medical humanities new materialisms and postcolonial studies

Pragmatic Literacy, East and West, 1200-1330 R. H. Britnell, 1997 Studies of the uses of literacy for the exercise of political and economic power in Latin Christendom and the wider world This pioneering collection of studies is concerned with the way in which increasing literacy interacted with the desire of thirteenth century rulers to keep fuller records of their government's activities and the manner in which this literacy could be used to safeguard or increase authority In Europe the keeping of archives became an increasingly normal part of everyday administrative routines and much has survived owing to the prolonged preference for parchment rather than paper in the Eastern civilisations material is more scarce Papers discuss pragmatic literacy and record keeping in both West and East through the medium of both literary and official texts
