Sin In The Sand Taboo Erotica:

Taboo Hannah Thompson, 2017-07-05 French realist texts are driven by representations of the body and depend on corporeality to generate narrative intrigue. But anxieties around bodily representation undermine realist claims of objectivity and transparency. Aspects of bodily reality which threaten les bonnes moeurs: gender confusion, sexual appetite, disability, torture, murder, child abuse and disease rarely occupy the foreground and are instead spurned or only partially alluded to by writers and critics. This wide-ranging study uses the notion of the taboo as a powerful means of interpreting representations of the body. The hidden bodies of realist texts reveal their secrets in unexpected ways. Thompson reads texts by Sand, Rachilde, Maupassant, Hugo, Barbey d'Aurevilly, Mirbeau and Zola alongside modern theorists of the body to show how the figure of the taboo plots an alternative model of author-reader relations based on the struggle to speak the unspeakable. Dr Hannah Thompson is a Senior Lecturer in French at Royal Holloway University of London. Her first book, Naturalism Redressed: Identity and Clothing in the Novels of Emile Zola, was published by Legenda in 2004.

Maternal Fictions Maryline Lukacher, 1994. Stendhal, George Sand, Rachilde, Georges Bataille. Forgoing the patronym with its weight of meaning, these modern French writers renamed themselves in their work. Their use of pseudonyms, as Maryline Lukacher demonstrates in this provocative study, is part of a process to subvert the name of the father and explore the suppressed relation to the figure of the mother. Combining psychoanalytic criticism, feminist theory and literary analysis, Maternal Fictions offers a complex psychological portrait of these writers who managed at once to challenge patriarchal authority and at the same time attempt to return to the maternal. Through readings of Armance, Le Rouge et le noir, La Vie de Henry Brulard and Les Cenci, Lukacher exposes Stendhal's preoccupation with his dead mother who is obsessively retrieved throughout his work. George Sand's identity is in effect divided between two mothers: her biological mother and her grandmother. And in Histoire de ma vie, Indiana and Mauprat, we see the writer's efforts to break the impasse created by this divided identity. In the extraordinary but too little-known work of Rachilde, Marguerite Eymery, Lukacher finds the maternal figure identified as the secret inner force of patriarchal oppression. This resistance to feminism continues in the pseudonymous work of Georges Bataille In Ma m re Le coupable and *L Exp rience int rieur*e Lukacher traces Bataille s representation of the mother as a menacing ever subversive figure who threatens basic social configurations Maternal Fictions establishes a new pseudonymous genealogy in modern French writing that will inform and advance our understanding of the act of self creation that occurs in fiction Objects of Desire Beryl Schlossman,1999 Through an innovative use of style her literary examples articulate an art of seduction and an aesthetic that transforms suspends or erases identity individual gender social and cultural BOOK JACKET Genetic Studies in Joyce David Hayman, Sam Slote,1995 Joyce criticism is a long way from having controlled the treasure trove of manuscript materials in the 63 volume James Joyce Archive PROBES represents a new effort of incorporating manuscript research into critical concerns demonstrating in a practical manner how genetic work contributes to a fuller and more nuanced appreciation of Joyce s work The organization of the essays is designed to highlight our two major but interlocking concerns the nature and theoretical underpinnings of genetic criticism of Joyce and especially of Finnegans Wake and some of the many ways that theory can be applied to the creative situation reflected in the notes and manuscripts The questions raised in this volume are both current and important Like Finnegans Wake itself the manuscript record because it is so complete by stimulating the reader s curiosity and ingenuity lends itself to a variety of approaches while rewarding specialized knowledge Here too as we decipher and transcribe we are well advised to follow Joyce s advice and wipe our glosses with what we know This volume will provide much that is new and of interest for all scholars of Joyce as well as scholars interested in the issues raised by genetic criticism Song Lyrics Michel Montecrossa,2004 Probes ,2021-11-15 Joyce criticism is a long way from having controlled the treasure trove of manuscript materials in the 63 volume James Joyce Archive PROBES represents a new effort of incorporating manuscript research into critical concerns demonstrating in a practical manner how genetic work contributes to a fuller and more nuanced appreciation of Joyce s work The organization of the essays is designed to highlight our two major but interlocking concerns the nature and theoretical underpinnings of genetic criticism of Joyce and especially of Finnegans Wake and some of the many ways that theory can be applied to the creative situation reflected in the notes and manuscripts The questions raised in this volume are both current and important Like Finnegans Wake itself the manuscript record because it is so complete by stimulating the reader s curiosity and ingenuity lends itself to a variety of approaches while rewarding specialized knowledge Here too as we decipher and transcribe we are well advised to follow Joyce s advice and wipe our glosses with what we know This volume will provide much that is new and of interest for all scholars of Joyce as well as scholars interested in the issues raised by genetic criticism A Natural History of Love Diane Ackerman,1995-02-21 The bestselling author of A Natural History of the Senses now explores the allure of adultery the appeal of aphrodisiacs and the cult of the kiss Enchantingly written and stunningly informed this audaciously brilliant romp through the world of romantic love Washington Post Book World is the next best thing to love itself The Dial Francis
