The Homeschooling Parent Teaches MATH! Kerridwen Mangala McNamara, 2023-11-10 We all worry about our kids learning math Even if the kids are in school there's always a concern Sometimes it's about the kid's concern sometimes it's about their teacher's concern parent teacher or otherwise But a lot of the time it's about US It's about our own math phobias those fears dislikes or aversions that we picked up from our own math experiences and that we inadvertently pass on to our kids We don't want them to be afraid of math we know that limits their opportunities and makes their lives harder and costs them more money but we just can't help it This book is here to help you deal with your own math phobias and come to if not outright enjoy math to at least appreciate it and be able to convey it to your kids without passing on the fear Kerridwen Mangala McNamara is NOT a math lover but she is a math appreciator and has worked through most of these issues herself Let her help you along your homeschooling journey and show you how to fight the Fear of Math monster so that it no longer intimidates you or your kids

Annual Report

Singapore,1958 Psychoanalysis in Hong Kong Diego Busiol,2016-10-04 How is it possible that a phenomenon like psychoanalysis which has dominated the cultural and intellectual life of the last century in Europe North and South America has seemingly had little to no resonance in Hong Kong This book attempts to explain this phenomenon Addressing the subject from an East to West approach this book proposes an experience of displacement as it is argued that the opportunity for psychoanalysis today is not just to be exported to the East but rather to be re invented after an encounter with a radically different culture This encounter allows the Western practitioner to question their experience and highlights the assumptions of Western thought and knowledge Following this what remains of psychoanalysis as we know it How can psychoanalysis be re thought and re formed today in a format independent of different theoretical orientations and schools The book addresses key issues such as Is there psychoanalysis in Hong Kong How does one do research on psychoanalysis in Hong Kong Why was the Freudian Unconscious not discovered in China How can we describe the core of psychoanalysis and how can this description be understood in different cultural contexts Can psychoanalytic research be led by adopting a quantitative or statistical methodology Founded on the belief that psychoanalysis should be re invented in light of its encounter with non Western cultures this book highlights an opportunity to undertake this as an intellectual cultural and artistic challenge It will enrich researchers and students understanding of psychoanalysis and inform broader views of psychoanalysis in non Western contexts Practicing psychoanalysts students of psychoanalysis and those seeking to understand psychoanalysis in different cultural contexts will be particularly interested readers A Manager's Guide to British Standard BS 25999 for

Keo, 2025-01-02 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations

The end of Britain s empire in Southeast Asia in the wake of World War II generated new opportunities for colonial subjects across the region to reimagine themselves as citizens of a dizzying array of potential new nations While post war optimism and a global push for decolonisation created an environment where myriad communities felt a palpable sense of possibility for bringing their aspirations of nationhood to life many of these desires were unfulfilled Imagining Malaya is an exploration of one of those many imagined nations that never came to be It narrates a series of seemingly disparate and contradictory political acts by the Peranakan Chinese a creolised community borne of intermarriage between the earliest Chinese migrants to the region and indigenous Malays in the post World War II period to demonstrate that the community were in fact seeking to bring to life a cosmopolitan inclusive and multi ethnic imagination of the Malay si an nation Engaging in a critical re examination of the intertwined processes of decolonization and nation making Imagining Malaya provides an alternative reading of Malay si a s path to merdeka independence from the perspective of the Peranakan It narrates how a once powerful community at the centre of Malay si an politics and society came undone by their attempts to present an alternative imagination of the nation which challenged the ethnocentrism that came to dominate the country s political life Rewriting the Peranakan into the centre of Malaysia s national story rather than its periphery is a parable on the complexities and pitfalls of attempting to forge a representative nation state from a multi ethnic society during the transition between colony and nation By bringing the Peranakan imaginary of the nation to life Bernard Z Keo makes a case for how studying nations that were unrealized can reveal just as much as investigating those that were

Enjoying the Beat of Phrase: An Psychological Symphony within Singapore Standards Edition
