Singapore: Change And Continuity (1891-2007) Hong Kheng Chow,Christine Goh,Yap Kwang Tan,2008-03-28 The first book to explore the development of Singapore s much talked about education and examination system this volume juxtaposes examinations with its immediate context of education and wider context of politics economy and society The study covers three broad historical periods Examinations in Singapore from 1891 to 1945 The Post War Years from 1946 to the 1970s and Charting Our Destiny from the 1980s to 2007 In the British period up to 1941 the local examinations were conducted by the vernacular schools and external examinations by the University of Cambridge Local Examinations Syndicate There was a lack of systematic effort to establish a uniform system of education and examinations During the Japanese Occupation examinations were conducted by the Japanese authorities and unexpectedly the Cambridge examinations continued in the Sime Road Camp In the post war period and particularly after Singapore was granted self government the establishment of a national education system was followed by the emergence of national examinations the Primary School Leaving Examinations and the Singapore Cambridge GCE N O A Levels for every school going child in Singapore Thereafter the nature of national examinations evolved with the changing needs of education and the nation At the turn of the century with the Ministry of Education s decision to take greater control of examinations the Singapore Examinations and Assessment Board was established to oversee new developments in examinations Unlike most literature on education where examinations are often mentioned as an outcome of educational goals and objectives this book focuses on examinations per se Examinations have gained a momentum of their own and it is interesting to note the development of examinations against the backdrop of the broader history of Singapore and of education in Singapore future      Constructing Singapore Michael D. Barr, Zlatko Skrbis, 2008 Constructing Singapore studies Singaporean nation building by focusing on two processes elite formation and elite selection It gives primary attention to the role that ethno racial ascription plays in these processes but also considers the input of personal connections personal power class and gender It is a study of the progress of Singapore's state sponsored nation building project to its current state whereby a Singaporean version of Chinese ethno nationalism has overwhelmed the discourse on national and Singaporean identity Based upon archival research and formal interviews this study unpacks the culture of elite governance in Lee Hsien Loong's Singapore today      Education in Singapore Yew-Jin Lee, 2022-04-06 This edited book is a comprehensive resource for understanding the history as well as the current status of educational practices in Singapore It is a one stop reference guide to education and educational issues concerns here There are three sections Part 1 provides a sectorial overview of how education has been organized in this country such as preschool special needs primary and secondary and adult education divisions In Part 2 contributors critically delve into issues and policies that are pertinent to understanding education here such as underachievement leadership language education assessment and meritocracy to question what Part 1 might have taken for granted Part 3 contains the largest number of contributors because it offers a scholarly examination into specific subject histories This section stands out because of the comparative rarity of its subject matter history of Physical Education Art Music Geography Education etc in Singapore      Chronicle of Singapore, 1959-2009 Peter H. L. Lim, 2009 This lavishly illustrated volume captures the entire dramatic sweep of Singapore's modern history from its declaration of independence in 1959 to today Organised in chronological order with each year's coverage starting with a succinct summary of its key events Chronicle of Singapore covers not only the nation's defining political and economic events but also the more human side of Singapore sports fashion music the arts architecture and culture giving readers the broadest possible coverage Anyone who has visited or lived in this most unique of modern city nations will be enthralled by this pictorial and narrative history

Reforms and Issues in School Mathematics in East Asia, 2010-01-01 Worldwide efforts to improve students learning of mathematics have turned educational researchers attention to some high achieving education systems especially those in East Asia including Chinese Mainland Hong Kong Japan Singapore South Korea and Taiwan However there is much less sharing and learning of educational policy and practices that goes beyond one or two such high achieving education systems At this time when educational changes and reforms for improving students learning of mathematics are also underway within these high achieving education systems in East Asia it becomes timely and important for the world to learn why and how relevant changes take place across these selected education systems This book has put together a set of papers that individually presents issues on the changing mathematics curriculum and teacher education in the six high achieving education systems in East Asia Collectively the book extends beyond what we can learn about exemplary practices in individual education systems in East Asia It helps us develop a better understanding of the interplay between various measures for the pursuit of excellence in mathematics curriculum and teacher education on the one hand and the different system contexts on the other. The intended readers of the book include education policy makers, curriculum developers, researchers, teachers, teacher educators, and anyone else interested in school mathematics curriculum and teacher education.
