Conversely we see government anthropologists struggle for the ethnographic truth as communities increasingly turn academic paradigms back upon the state The Demands of Recognition offers a compelling look at the escalating politics of tribal recognition in India At once ethnographic and historical it chronicles how multicultural governance has motivated the people of Darjeeling to ethnologically redefine themselves from Gorkha to tribal and back But as these communities now know not all forms of difference are legible in the eyes of the state The Gorkhas search for recognition has only amplified these communities anxieties about who they are and who they must be if they are to attain the rights autonomy and belonging they desire
