Oxford Professional Practice: Handbook of Management for Hospital Dentistry, 2025-06-19 Healthcare management in dentistry is a highly skilled and multifaceted area of expertise. Although it features heavily in any path to specialising in dentistry, it often doesn't make it to many clinical resources or books to help guide the dentist on their journey. More than ever, there is an increased focus on healthcare management within the dental syllabus and a greater emphasis at more junior levels. Oxford Professional Practice Handbook of Management for Hospital Dentistry covers the managerial component of the dental curricula in a concise manner whilst pertaining to the wider NHS setting. This practical pocket-sized handbook ranges from the overarching NHS policies down to the daily management of staff, conflict, risks, and trainees within the dental team. Also catering to the Intercollegiate Specialty Fellowship Examination (ISFE), it is an ideal companion for trainees on the dental postgraduate pathway right the way through to consultants in their early leadership years.

Evidence-based Practice for Nurses and Healthcare Professionals Janet Barker, Paul Linsley, Ros Kane, 2016-05-28 In the current healthcare climate, it is more important than ever to be able to select and find the right evidence for your practice to ensure patients receive safe, high-quality care. The fully updated new edition of this comprehensive book helps nurses and healthcare professionals understand how to use evidence in all aspects of care, with plenty of examples and activities to help relate concepts to practice. The new edition features an explanation of what values-based practice means and how it fits alongside evidence-based practice. A new chapter on innovation and improvement to help you make a difference in your practice. Even more examples from a range of professions to understand how different professions work together. Learning features to make it easier to learn, including word puzzles, chapter summaries, and a glossary. It is essential reading for all pre-qualifying and qualified nursing and allied health students who are exploring evidence-based practice for the first time. Janet Barker was formerly Associate Professor of Nursing at the University of Nottingham. Paul Linsley and Ros Kane are both Principal Lecturers at the University of Lincoln.
