

The Personal Statement

In reading your application, we want to get to know you as well as we can. There's a limit to what grades and test scores can tell us so we ask you to write a personal statement.

Your personal statement is your chance to tell us who you are and what's important to you. Think of it as your opportunity to introduce yourself to the admissions and scholarship officers reading your application. Be open, be honest, be real. What you tell us in your personal statement gives readers the context to better understand the rest of the information you've provided in your application.

A couple of tips: Read each prompt carefully and be sure to respond to all parts. Use specific, concrete examples to support the points you want to make. Finally, relax. This is one of many pieces of information we consider in reviewing your application; an admission decision will not be based on your personal statement alone.

Instructions and Prompts

- Respond to both prompts, using a maximum of 1,000 words total.
- You may allocate the word count as you wish. If you choose to respond to one prompt at greater length, we suggest your shorter answer be no less than 250 words.
- Stay within the word limit as closely as you can. A little over — 1,012 words, for example — is fine.

Prompt #1 (freshman applicants)

Describe the world you come from — for example, your family, community or school — and tell us how your world has shaped your dreams and aspirations.

Prompt #1 (transfer applicants)

What is your intended major? Discuss how your interest in the subject developed and describe any experience you have had in the field — such as volunteer work, internships and employment, participation in student organizations and activities — and what you have gained from your involvement.

Prompt #2 (all applicants)

Tell us about a personal quality, talent, accomplishment, contribution or experience that is important to you. What about this quality or accomplishment makes you proud and how does it relate to the person you are?

Doing Our Own Thing John McWhorter, 2004-09-09 McWhorter is a gifted young linguist who seeks to understand the change in our verbal habits rather than just bemoan it and his analysis is insightful richly documented and yes eloquently written Steven Pinker author of The Blank Slate and The Language Instinct In Doing Our Own Thing critically acclaimed linguist and cultural critic John McWhorter traces the precipitous decline of language in contemporary America arguing persuasively that casual everyday speech has conquered the formal in all arenas from oratory to poetry to everyday journalism and has even had dire consequences for our musical culture McWhorter argues that the swift and startling change in written and oral communication emanated from the countercultural revolution of the 1960s and its ideology that established forms and formality were autocratic and artificial While acknowledging that the evolution of language is in and of itself inevitable and often benign he warns that the near total loss of formal expression in America is unprecedented in modern history and has reached a crisis point in our culture such that our very ability to convey ideas and arguments effectively is gravely threatened By turns compelling and harrowing passionate and judicious Doing Our Own Thing is required reading for all concerned about the state of our language and the future of intellectual life in America The Complete Book of Colleges, 2012 Edition Princeton Review (Firm),2011-08-15 Presents a comprehensive guide to 1 571 colleges and universities and includes information on academic programs admissions requirements tuition costs housing financial aid campus life organizations athletic programs and student services Statement on Competencies in English and Mathematics Expected of Entering Freshmen ,1982 The Complete Book of Colleges, 2018 Edition Princeton Review,2017-07 Includes information on admissions cost financial aid required and recommended admissions criteria cost breakdowns and types of financial aid for 1 355 colleges and universities Studying Transfer in Higher Education: New Approaches to Enduring and Emerging Topics Xueli Wang,2017-01-17 Gain fresh perspectives and approaches to the topic of students transferring among institutions of higher education Despite the copious research on transfer patterns and students who transfer this line of research is thronged with conceptual methodological and data challenges that warrant continued and more nuanced attention This volume answers this call and provides updated scholarship and examines emerging issues pertaining to transfer Organized around two broad interconnected ways to conceptualize transfer it first examines students who transfer and then discusses transfer as a complex postsecondary pathway Engaging empirical research perspectives and case analysis from higher education scholars and institutional researchers this volume offers renewed conceptual and methodological insights that inform future research on transfer along with concrete recommendations for institutional researchers This is the 170th volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Timely and comprehensive New Directions for Institutional Research provides planners and administrators in all types of academic institutions with guidelines in such areas as resource coordination information analysis program evaluation and institutional management The Complete Book of Colleges, 2020 Edition Princeton Review,2019-07-02 No one knows colleges better than The Princeton Review Inside The Complete Book of Colleges 2020 Edition students will find meticulously researched information that will help them narrow their college search Best 162 Medical Schools 2005 Edition Malaika Stoll,Princeton Review (Firm),2004 Our Best 357 Colleges is the best selling college guide on the market because it is the voice of the students Now we let graduate students speak for themselves too in these brand new guides for selecting the ideal business law medical or arts and humanities graduate school It includes detailed profiles rankings based on student surveys like those made popular by our Best 357 Colleges guide as
