Overview

Summary

This activity is based on predicting probabilities and experimenting to see if the theoretical model fits the observed data. The probability is not difficult once the strategy, essentially enumeration, has been thought through. It is said to be based on an old Russian peasant tradition for deciding who in the village was going to get married in the next year.

Mathematical strand

Probability

Prior knowledge

It will require students to have mastered finding probabilities through listing all the possible outcomes.

Relevance to Core Maths qualifications

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Suggested approaches

This could be started with a very brief historical context, followed by students working in pairs to obtain observed class data, and a second phase of students working through the theoretical approach.

Resources/documentation

In addition to this overview there are:

- Teacher notes
- Handout

Relevant digital technologies

This does not require any use of digital technology.

Possible extensions

The problem can be extended by considering more 'blades of grass' and it would be possible to use significance testing to compare theoretical and observed data.

Betting on Ideas Reuven Brenner,1989-07-10 In this book Reuven Brenner argues that people bet on new ideas and are more willing to take risks when they have been outdone by their fellows on local national or international scales Such bets mean that people deviate from the beaten path and either gamble commit crimes or come up with new ideas in art business or politics and ideas concerning war and peace in particular By using evidence on gambling crime and creativity now and during the Industrial Revolution by examining innovations in English and French inheritance laws and the emergence of welfare legislation and by looking at what has happened before and after wars Brenner reaches the conclusion that hope and fear envy and vanity sentiments provoked when being leapfrogged make humans race Japan Weekly Mail ,1901
