

THE INTERVIEW

Last week, John Davison went for an interview. He was wearing his best suit; he was looking pretty good and he felt confident. He knew the job was right for him and he thought he was a good candidate. There were three people on the interview panel. The interview took place on the top floor of a big office block. The questions about the job were easy! John had answers for them all. Then came the usual: what is your best quality? John replied truthfully that he was extremely well organised. The interviewers were pleased and nodded their heads in approval. Then they asked him what his worst quality was. John answered honestly: 'My worst quality is my honesty' he said. The interviewers looked at each other and smiled. The one in the middle said, 'I think honesty is an excellent quality Mr Davison and I am delighted you are honest'.

'I don't really care what you think,' answered John.

Answer the following questions:

1. When did John go for his interview?
2. What was he wearing?
3. How did he feel?
4. Did he think he was suitable for the job?
5. How many people interviewed him?
6. Where did the interview take place?
7. Did they ask him any difficult questions about the job?
8. What question is 'the usual'?
9. What is John's best quality?
10. What is the opposite of that question?
11. Which interviewer said that honesty is a good thing?
12. Did John's final answer surprise you?

Did you enjoy the joke? What are YOUR best and worst qualities?

Should you always be truthful? Can you think of any situations when it is a good idea to be a bit untruthful and tell white lies?*

addressed to his contemporaries Michel Foucault Pierre Klossowski François Châtelet and Clément Rosset among others Of particular importance are the letters addressed to Félix Guattari which offer an irreplaceable account of their work as a duo from Anti-Oedipus to What is Philosophy? Later letters provide a new perspective on Deleuze's work as he responds to students' questions his volume also offers a set of unpublished or hard to find texts including some essays from Deleuze's youth a few unusual drawings and a long interview from 1973 on Anti-Oedipus with Guattari

Martin Heidegger and the Truth About the Black Notebooks Friedrich-Wilhelm von Herrmann, Francesco Alfieri, 2022-01-01 Toward the beginning of 2013 I received reports of passages in the Black Notebooks that offered observations on Jewry or as the case may be world Jewry It immediately became clear to me that the publication of the Black Notebooks would call forth a wide spread international debate Already in the Spring of 2013 I had asked Professor Friedrich Wilhelm von Herrmann last private assistant and in the words of my grandfather the chief co-worker of the complete edition if he might review the Notebooks as a whole based on his profound insight into the thought of Martin Heidegger and in particular review those Jewish related passages that were the focus of the public eye Publications about the Black Notebooks quickly came to propagate catchy expressions such as being historical anti-Semitism and metaphysical anti-Semitism The first question that obviously arises is Does the thought of Martin Heidegger exhibit any kind of anti-Semitism at all In this book Professor von Herrmann now advances his hermeneutic explication With Professor Francesco Alfieri of the Pontificia Università Lateranense he has found a colleague who has drawn up a comprehensive philological analysis of volumes GA 94 through GA 97 of the Complete Edition The fact that Heidegger designated the hitherto published black notebooks as Ponderings berlegungen and as Observations Anmerkungen has been given little consideration He intentionally placed them at the conclusion of the Complete Edition because without acquaintance with the lectures and above all with the being historical treatises that would come to be published in the framework of the Complete Edition they would not be comprehensible Arnulf Heidegger
