Taming the Guerrilla in International Commercial Arbitration Navin G. Ahuja, 2022-05-23 The book explores the definition and nature of guerrilla tactics in international commercial arbitration It analyses various such tactics deployed pre Covid and during Covid times and portrays them in a way that enables one to visualise how and possibly why they might be deployed Attempts to codify ethical standards and rules regulating the behaviour of legal representatives in international arbitration are examined The book covers a range of culture clashes addresses several elephants in the room and looks at factors inherent in the arbitral process that create opportunities and increase temptations to misbehave. It considers the remedies and sanctions available in international arbitration and compares them to those available to the courts in civil litigation. In addition to recommendations for future research, the book offers solutions to curb the problem in line with party autonomy and with a critical analysis. This manuscript is an essential solutions-based text that not only addresses a comprehensive range of modern-day guerrilla tactics in international commercial arbitration but also offers thoughtful methods to deal with the shenanigans that parties may bring to the arbitral process.

Chiann Bao, Independent Arbitrator, Arbitration Chambers and Vice President of the International Chamber of Commerce Court of Arbitration. Dr. Ahuja's book is a thoughtful and highly practical contribution to the study of procedures in international commercial arbitration. It is replete with scholarly analysis, careful treatment of authority, pragmatic insights, and policy discussions. Any practitioner or student of international arbitration would benefit from this volume.

Gary Born, Author, International Commercial Arbitration 3d ed 2021. A highly readable and informative book which identifies and analyses the numerous guerrilla tactics parties may attempt to deploy in international commercial arbitration, the factors which may encourage such behaviour, and practical mechanisms to keep the proceedings on track. Both erudite and practical, this book is a must-read for parties, counsel, and arbitrators alike.

Prof Benjamin Hughes, Independent Arbitrator, The Arbitration Chambers. Guerrilla tactics are a pertinent problem in arbitration. Dr. Ahuja's well-written book not only describes the various tactics in a succinct way but provides extremely useful guidance on how to tackle them. It will be a primary source of reference for every practitioner faced with such tactics.

Prof Dr Stefan Kröll, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the German Arbitration Institute (DIS). Taming the Guerrilla in International Commercial Arbitration offers a refreshingly candid and balanced discussion of sharp practices in international arbitration. The book collects a wealth of information on guerrilla tactics previously only available in separate survey reports, articles, and guidelines on the topic. It additionally includes a chapter addressing tactics deployed in virtual or remote arbitrations due to the Covid-19 pandemic. The comprehensive research and analysis presented in this book make it a valuable resource to counsel, parties, arbitrators, academics, and those who deliver practical arbitration training. A must-read for those who want to better understand the practices that may lead some to disfavor arbitration and ways the arbitration community can respond to guerrilla tactics to improve the arbitration process for all participants.

Dana MacGrath, Independent Arbitrator. MacGrath, Arbitration: From an unreasoned fiat of a wise man who left both sides equally unhappy but resolved the disputes effectively. Arbitration has evolved into a full-scale trial before a party-chosen tribunal. Its informality and expedition put in peril the fundamental right of the recalcitrant to delay proceedings. Dr. Ahuja has assiduously articulated the measures aptly christened Guerrilla Tactics used to disrupt and derail arbitrations. An indispensable read for the practitioner and an insightful treatise for the policy maker.

Harish Salve, SA, QC, Blackstone Chambers. This book shines a spotlight on arbitration's dark arts guerrilla tactics. Dr. Ahuja illuminates this shadowy world with excellent and much-needed scholarship that is practice based and useful for all stakeholders in arbitration His examination of the root causes of this problem recommendations on how to control it comparisons with litigation practice and suggestions for future research marvellously combine to make this a work that is required to be consulted by all serious counsel arbitrators institutions and academics in the field of arbitration Romesh Weeramantry Head International Dispute Resolution Centre for International Law National University of Singapore

Court Assistance in the Taking of Evidence in International Arbitration Lorenz

Raess,2020-10-19 Although international arbitration is widely hailed as an efficient confidential and flexible way of settling commercial disputes it has its limits The arbitral tribunal s lack of coercive power is thrown into particularly stark relief when it comes to the taking of evidence from third parties outside the arbitral proceedings If they do not comply voluntarily with the request of the arbitral tribunal to testify as a witness or disclose documents assistance must be sought from state courts As the success of a case hinges on the evidence that a party can obtain it is crucial to understand how to obtain evidence through state courts At the heart of this work is the question of the conditions under which state courts may offer assistance in international arbitral proceedings With a special focus on Switzerland and comparative aspects this book provides helpful tactical insights for arbitral practitioners around the world

Evolution and Adaptation Jean
