Applying Standards-Based Constructivism Pat Flynn, Don Mesibov, Paul Vermette, 2013-10-11 This book provides teachers with practical ways of constructing lessons that will engage students and help them develop personal responsibility for their own learning

Differentiation in the Elementary Grades Kristina J. Doubet, Jessica A. Hockett, 2017-10-24 In this comprehensive resource for elementary school teachers Kristina J. Doubet and Jessica A. Hockett explore how to use differentiated instruction to help students be more successful learners regardless of background, native language, learning preference, or motivation. They explain how to create a healthy classroom community in which students' unique qualities and needs are as important as the ones they have in common. Translate curriculum into manageable and meaningful learning goals that are fit to be differentiated. Use pre-assessment and formative assessment to uncover students' learning needs, tailor tasks accordingly, and ensure that students are getting it. Provide interactive learning experiences that encourage students to engage with both the content and one another. Present students with avenues to take in process and produce knowledge that appeal to their varied interests and learning preferences. Navigate potential roadblocks to differentiation. Each chapter provides a plethora of practical tools, templates, and strategies for a variety of subject areas developed by and for real teachers. Whether you're new to differentiated instruction or looking to expand your repertoire of DI strategies, Differentiation in the Elementary Grades will show you classroom-tested ways to better engage students and help them succeed every day. Includes URL and password for free downloadable forms. Upstart Startup James Nehring, 2002 Direct from the heart of public school reform, James Nehring offers a complete tour of one charter school walking us through the school's vision of learning, the day-to-day challenges, the many achievements, and the lessons learned. From the unique perspective of school principal and then full-time teacher, Nehring takes us deep into the Francis W. Parker Charter Essential School, providing rare insight into the strategic issues involved in launching a new school. This engaging narrative is certain to add credibility and inspiration to all those who are interested in learning how charter schools operate and how public education might be renewed in the process. The message of this book is at once simple and profound: charter schools work.

Developing Learning Communities Through Teacher Expertise Giselle O. Martin-Kniep, 2003-10-14 No book I have read in the past ten years has made clearer to me the difference between what I am doing as a professional developer and what I should be doing. It is so unrelentingly honest about the difficulty of our work and yet so rich in practical examples that I cannot help but feel inspired to move forward and change the way I teach and learn with teachers. Richard W. Strong, Vice President, Silver Strong, however, this book is concise, provides excellent templates, and is backed by real experiences and expertise. Suzanne C. Fonoti, Principal, Flagstaff, Arizona Unified School District. Forget expensive consultants; use the expertise within your own school for quality professional development. Martin Kniep offers practical methods for developing a reflective, collaborative environment where teachers and administrators work together to enhance teachers' practices, increase student learning and produce valuable school processes

Developing Learning Communities Through Teacher Expertise includes frameworks templates and examples that can be employed to determine the value and implications surrounding the use of teacher designed standards based curriculum and assessment data driven inquiry and professional portfolios Based on work completed at the nonprofit Center for the Study of Expertise in Teaching and Learning this innovative volume includes Examples of teachers reflections portfolio artifacts and student work Sample standards based curriculum units for different content areas and grade levels Discussion questions and recommended readings Sample worksheets and self assessments Standards based curriculum and assessment design tools Sample rubrics for student and teacher development
