

RUNNING WILD

This is one of 16 activities to try during Michael Morpurgo Month, each of which explores an extract from a different book written by the world famous author. The books are grouped into four themes: natural world, animal adventures, tales retold, and times of war. All the activities can be used as either a quick starter or a longer lesson and provide a great opportunity to develop children's comprehension and vocabulary - not to mention a love of Michael Morpurgo's books.

Running Wild

For Will and his mother, going to Indonesia isn't just a holiday. It's an escape, a new start, a chance to put things behind them - things like the death of Will's father. And to begin with, it seems to be just what they both needed. But then Oona, the elephant Will is riding on the beach, begins acting strangely, shying away from the sea. And that's when the tsunami comes crashing in, and Oona begins to run. Except that when the tsunami is gone, Oona just keeps on running. With nothing on his back but a shirt and nothing to sustain him but a bottle of water, Will must learn to survive deep in the jungle. Luckily, though, he's not completely alone. He's got Oona.

Using the resource

This resource shares a scene where Will jumps from Oona's back into a river to quench his thirst.

After reading the text, there are suggested discussion activities considering:

- Careful reading, making inferences from the text
- Author's craft through giving information about a reader through showing rather than explicitly telling
- Vocabulary, focusing on potentially unfamiliar words

Depending on time and the needs of your class, you may want to work through all of these interrelated activities or focus on just one.

There is also a sheet with a writing challenge based on the extract. For Running Wild it focuses on narrative point of view. This could be used as a short classroom activity or as homework to consolidate the learning in the teaching session.

After reading and discussing the extract some children may be inspired to read the book itself. You could read it aloud as a class novel or direct children to where they can find a copy to read themselves: the book corner, school library, local library or a local bookshop.
