Reaching Activities World History:

Teaching World History Thematically Rosalie Metro, 2020 This book offers the tools teachers need to get started with a more thoughtful and compelling approach to teaching history one that develops literacy and higher order thinking skills connects the past to students lives today and meets social studies 3C standards and most state standards grades 6 12 The author provides over 90 primary sources organized into seven thematic units each structured around an essential question from world history As students analyze carefully excerpted documents including speeches by queens and rebels ancient artifacts and social media posts they build an understanding of how diverse historical figures have approached key issues At the same time students learn to participate in civic debates and develop their own views on what it means to be a 21st century citizen of the world Each unit connects to current events with dynamic classroom activities that make history come alive In addition to the documents themselves this teaching manual provides strategies to assess student learning mini lectures designed to introduce documents activities and reproducibles to help students process display and integrate their learning guidance to help teachers create their own units guidelines for respectful student debate and discussion and more Book Features A timely aid for secondary school teachers tasked with meeting standards and other state level quality requirements An approach that promotes student engagement and critical thinking to replace or augment a traditional textbook Challenges to the master narrative of world history from figures like Queen Nzinga and Huda Sha arawi as well as traditionally recognized historical figures such as Pericles and Napoleon Essential questions to help students explore seven of the most important recurring themes in world history Role plays and debates to promote interaction among students Printable copies of the documents included in the book can be downloaded at tcpress.com Focus on World History Kathy Sammis, 2002-09 Topics include Early human communities Emergence of agricultural societies Civilizations of Mesopotamia Egypt the Indus Valley and Greece The great empires of Persia China India and Rome The emergence of major religions

Document-Based Assessment Activities for Global History Classes Theresa C. Noonan, 1999 Covers all significant eras of global history Encourages students to analyze evidence documents and other data to make informed decisions Develops essential writing skills The Driving Force of Spiritual Powers in World History Rudolf Steiner, 2023-05-05 7 lectures in Dornach Switzerland March 11 23 1923 CW 222 Historical happenings on Earth can be understood in their reality only when we see them as reflections of what is being enacted in the supersensible spiritual world between the beings of the higher hierarchies Rudolf Steiner March 17 1923 What is the qualitative difference between the utterance of true and untrue words Is there one How about between living and dead thoughts What is the origin of war and strife among peoples on Earth How can humanity find a right relationship to the beings of the spiritual world These are among the compelling questions addressed by Rudolf Steiner in this concise yet powerful series of lectures given in March 1923 comprising this volume of The Collected Works of Rudolf Steiner In these lectures Steiner portrays among other things the work of various hierarchical beings both in collaboration and sometimes in opposition to one another whose activity and strife in the spiritual world is mirrored in the migrations of and wars among peoples on Earth The clashes between East and West for example are thus seen in an entirely new light heralding a sea change in the approach to history No longer should events on Earth be viewed as isolated within themselves but rather as interwoven in a grand vibrant tapestry formed from the threads that connect humanity on Earth with the activity and aims of exalted spiritual beings Humanity has profound potential for both good and evil The question is whether we will be able to rise to a renewed form of cognition through which we can once again grasp living spiritual reality or we will persist in the dead intellectualized thinking so common today thinking that as Steiner points out in the final lecture of this volume if not transformed will lead to the gradual destruction of Earth itself These lectures are a tour de force that should not be neglected by any serious student of history or the future of humanity and human life more broadly Includes 10 color plates This volume is a translation from German of Die Impulsierung des weltgeschichtlichen Geschehens durch geistige Mächte Rudolf Steiner Verlag 1989 GA 222 Cover Image Naval Battle of Lepanto 1571 by Luca Cambiasi 1521-1585 at the Royal Monastery of San Lorenzo de El Escorial Spain The History of the Popes Ludwig Freiherr von Pastor, 1929 SHELVED 1st FLOOR REFERENCE COUNTER HIGH SHELVING WEST SIDE Missing v 1 17 and 38 40 06 03 The Reach of Philosophy R.C. Whittemore, 1977-02-28 James Kern Feibleman born in New Orleans in 1904 of Jewish parents had an early career as poet short story writer and novelist and assistant manager of a department store and partner in an investment company His formal higher education did not extend beyond a semester of study at the University of Virginia In 1942 he joined the faculty of the Tulane College of Arts and Sciences as a lecturer in English and soon thereafter transferred to Philosophy Appointed full professor of philosophy in 1945 he became head of the Arts and Sciences department in 1951 and university chairman in 1957 He has also served as special lecturer in the Department of Psychiatry at Louisiana State University Medical School from 1958 to 1967 In 1969 upon his retirement from the department chairmanship Professor Feibleman was appointed in the W.R. Irby Chair in Philosophy In 1974 he was appointed Andrew W. Mellon Professor in the Humanities having the honor of being not only the first occupant of this newly established chair but also perhaps the only person ever selected from the university faculty for this honor In 1975 upon his final retirement from the university the faculty approved his appointment as Emeritus Professor of Philosophy The History of the Popes, from the Close of the Middle Ages Ludwig Freiherr von Pastor, 1929 Metaphor and History Robert Nisbet, 2017-09-08 The primary purpose of Metaphor and History is to explain the sources and contexts of the Western idea of social development Nisbet explores the concept of social change across the whole range of Western culture from ancient Greece to the present day He does not see the idea of social development as a nineteenth century phenomenon or a by-product of the idea of biological evolution Peace in World History Peter Stearns, 2014-04-03 In Peace in World History Peter N. Stearns examines the ideas of peace that have existed throughout history and how societies have sought to put them into practice Beginning with the status of peace in early hunter gatherer and agricultural societies and continuing through the present day the narrative gives students a clear view of the ways people across the world have understood and striven to achieve peace throughout history Topics covered include Comparison of the pax Romana and pax Sinica of Rome and China Concepts of peace in Buddhism Christianity and Islam and their historical impact The place of peace in the periods of expanding empires The emergence starting in the 19th century of formal schemes to promote peace amid increasingly destructive technologies for warfare Moving away from the view of history as a series of military conflicts Peace in World History offers a new way of looking at world history by focusing on peace Showing how concepts of peace have evolved over time even as they have been challenged by war and conflict this lively and engaging narrative enables students to consider peace as a human possibility

History of French Literature: From the end of the reign of Louis XIV till the end of the reign of Louis Philippe Henri Van Laun, 1880 Mastering the Worst of Trades Julie M. Svalastog, 2021-02-15 This book investigates the Guinea Company and its members aiming to understand the genealogy of several major changes taking place in the English Atlantic and in the Anglo Africa trade in the seventeenth century and beyond Little attention has been paid to the companies that preceded the Royal African Company launched in 1672 and by presenting the Guinea Company the earliest of England's chartered Africa companies and its relationship with the influential men who became its members this book questions the inevitability of the Atlantic reality of the later seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Through its members the Guinea Company emerged as a purpose built structure with the ability to weather a volatile trade undergoing fundamental change International

The Winds of History Andreas Zeman, 2023-10-24. Based on extensive archival research in six countries and intensive fieldwork, the book analyzes the history of the village of Nkhlongue on the eastern Mozambican shores of Lake Malawi from the time of its formation in the 19th century to the present day. The study uses Nkhlongue as a microhistorical lens to examine such diverse topics as the slave trade, the spread of Islam, colonization, subsistence production, counter-insurgency, decolonization, civil war, ecotourism, and matriliney. Thereby, the book attempts to reflect as much as possible on the generalizability and global comparability of local findings by framing analyses in historiographical discussions that aim to go beyond the regional or national level. Although the chapters of the book deal with very different topics, they are united by a common interest in the social history of rural Africa in the longue durée. Contrary to persistent clichés of rural inertia in Africa, the book as a whole underscores the profound changeability of social conditions and relations in Nkhlongue over the years and highlights how people's room for maneuver kept changing as a result of the Winds of History, the frequent and often violent ruptures brought to the village from outside.
