Distance Education in the South Pacific Richard Guy, Toshio Kosuge, Rieko Hayakawa, 2000 Education in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Michael Crossley, Greg Hancock, Terra Sprague, 2015-01-29 This book provides an up to date and well grounded analysis of education in Australia New Zealand and the Pacific including Cook Islands Federated States of Micronesia Fiji Kiribati Marshall Islands Papua New Guinea Samoa Solomon Islands Tonga Tuvalu and Vanuatu Leading writers from throughout this region identify contemporary educational challenges issues and priorities while drawing upon their own ongoing empirical research Key themes include the impact of international trends and developments educational reform and the quality of education indigenous learning inclusivity aid and development co operation and the changing role and place of tertiary education Detailed studies of specific educational systems and developments are considered in the light of broader analyses that run throughout the volume Intellectual Property (IP) Education in Business Schools : A

Global Perspective WIPO, Global Business School Network, 2023-08-28 How do business schools equip budding entrepreneurs and business students with the IP skills needed for a global knowledge economy To get a more informed view of the extent of IP education in business schools the World Intellectual Property Organization WIPO undertook this study in collaboration with the Global Business School Network GBSN The study shows that IP is taught to some degree in the vast majority of business schools surveyed but that more can be done reinforcing the importance of collaboration among stakeholders of the innovation ecosystem including IP governing bodies business and educational institutions Geography and National Identity David Hooson, 1994-10-20 This volume of especially commissioned essays explores the geography of and the role of geography in national and proto national identity Place and national identity are bound together Attachment to the one is almost always inseparable from the sense of the other Yet as this volume shows the articulated self conscious linking of place and identity is by and large a modern phenomenon that took root in nineteenth century Europe The formation of supranational states and the much vaunted globalization of culture led many to believe there would be a progressive dilution of national identities and a growing agglomeration of places and nations into larger state units Precisely the reverse has taken place This book explores the connections between identity and homeland showing how a place may be perceived as archetypal endowed with love and celebrated in music and poetry yet be a pretext for violence and war It examines the evolution of ideas about identity and their manifestations in a wide variety of settings from the former Soviet Union to the island states of the South Pacific Distance edu Different Countries D.b.rao, 2007 Outdoor Learning

Environments Helen Little, 2020-07-25 Educators have a key pedagogical role in promoting early years outdoor play in natural environments Active outdoor play involving risk taking has been linked to positive effects on social health and behaviour and encourages physical activity and motor skill development At the same time it has been recognised that opportunities for children to experience outdoor learning have been reduced in recent decades due to the impacts of technology urbanisation and social change This book brings together renowned authors with research and professional experience in a range of disciplines to provide a comprehensive guide to developing positive and engaging outdoor learning environments in the early years Part 1 looks at pedagogy and outdoor environments and considers the value of risk taking and developing a young child's appreciation of the natural world Part 2 examines the key principles involved in the design and planning of these spaces such as applying the relevant equipment standards and regulations Part 3 explores how educators can develop an understanding of children's own perspectives on outdoor spaces including promoting agency and recognising the importance of private playspaces Part 4 examines different cultural perspectives on outdoor play including Indigenous approaches while Part 5 considers the range of experiences possible beyond purposefully designed spaces from visiting nature reserves to exploring urban environments A much needed and comprehensive resource for pre-service teachers and educators of young children that encompasses philosophies theories pedagogy and practice for purposeful engagement of children in all kinds of outdoor spaces in Australia Dr Kumara Ward Director of Academic Program Early Childhood Education Western Sydney University This seminal work will provide a shared language and framework for educators policy developers community builders and researchers in exploring the justifications for engaging children in well considered outdoor learning places and spaces Leanne Grogan School of Education Outdoor and Environmental Studies La Trobe University
