concludes that Florence remains at risk to significant flooding and this risk grows each day It is not a question of whether a flood of the magnitude of 1966 or greater will occur but when In fact the level of protection that exists in Florence now is not on a level appropriate to the citizens and treasures that rest within the city If under current conditions a 1966 like flood occurred the consequences to human lives treasures properties and community infrastructure could be much more catastrophic than they were in 1966
