The Disappearance of Hong Kong in Comics, Advertising and Graphic Design Wendy Siuyi Wong,2018-10-23 This book examines Hong Kong s struggle against the disappearance of its unique identity under the historical challenges of colonialism in addition to the more recent reimposition of Chinese authoritarian government control as reflected in three under researched forms of visual media comics advertising and graphic design Each section of the book focuses on one of these three forms and each chapter focuses on one stage of Hong Kong's changing cultural identity. The articulative position of this book is on studies of visual cultural history and media communication. Its case studies will broaden readers' own cultural knowledge for a more international understanding. The Disappearance of Hong Kong in Comics Advertising and Graphic Design advances the development of its three key subjects in terms of identity, communication, and cultural politics, aiming to reach a wide range of multidisciplinary readers. Who's Who in American Art, 1982 Jaques Cattell Press, 1982-07

Painting Class Watercolor David Sanmiguel, 2006. A successful watercolor seems to be the product of pure inspiration, effortless and with a light touch that produces magical results. However, this complete on-the-page class teaches every aspect of the watercolorist's art, from the pigments, paints, palettes, and papers to drawing techniques and color harmony in nine beautiful projects. Inspiring photographs go close up to capture every line stroke and figure emerging from the brush, and numerous examples of lovely artwork appear throughout to illustrate the points. Learn to do line drawings, create blocks of color work with cool and warm tones, paint en plein air from nature, and interpret trees, skies, sea, and beach. The final projects feature all the most popular styles, including portraits, landscapes, and still lifes. American Drawings and Watercolors in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Kevin J. Avery, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2002. The Metropolitan Museum began acquiring American drawings and watercolors in 1880, just ten years after its founding. Since then it has amassed more than 1,500 works executed by American artists during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries in watercolor, pastel, chalk, ink, graphite, gouache, and charcoal. This volume documents the draftsmanship of more than 150 known artists before 1835 and that of about 60 unidentified artists of the period. It includes drawings and watercolors by such American masters as John Singleton Copley, John Trumbull, John Vanderlyn, Thomas Cole, Asher Brown Durand, George Inness, and James Abbott McNeill Whistler. Because the 504 works illustrate such a wide range of media techniques and styles, this publication is a veritable history of American drawing from the eighteenth through most of the nineteenth century. Metropolitan Museum of Art website. A Legacy of Art Carol Lowrey, 2007. For more than a century, a Gilded Age mansion on the south side of New York City's Gramercy Park has been home to the National Arts Club (NAC). Its magnificent interior, a refuge from hectic city life, is the focus of this special catalog. Lowrey, curator of the club's permanent collection, documents selected works by Artist Life Members—artists who were given lifetime memberships in the club in exchange for one of their works. The program ended in 1950 with the advent of the abstract expressionists. The father of well-known American sculptor Alexander Calder, Alexander Stirling Calder, was an Artist Life Member, and his sculpture of the painter George Bellows is among the many artworks included here. Also featured are an A to Z listing of Artist Life Members and a brief history of the NAC. The catalog section includes full-color reproductions and descriptions of the artworks, as well as brief biographies of the artist. Many members' works show European influences, particularly impressionism and the Barbizon school, while others are distinctly American, as in the Ash Can school. A fine and fitting tribute to the NAC legacy that will be of interest to club, academic, and large public.
