Garcés-Manzanera, Aitor, Carrillo García, María Encarnación, 2023-04-11 In the last two decades the field of language and literature teaching has experienced considerable growth as a result of the wide array of new methodological avenues that have arisen from different angles This paradigm shift has paved the way for the integration of newly conceived didactic resources such as the mediation of social networks for learning language or the interdisciplinarity of culturally mediated language education It is crucial to understand this shift in order to ensure students receive the best education possible New Approaches to the Investigation of Language Teaching and Literature presents an overview of the ongoing methodological tools practices research designs and strategies used in language and literature teaching and provides education researchers and practitioners with empirically sustained evidence of teaching strategies that may be implemented in language education Covering key topics such as language skills adult learners digital literacy and learning aids this reference work is ideal for researchers scholars academicians practitioners educators and students The Teacher's Gradebook Barry

Raebeck, 2002-07-16 In The Teacher's Gradebook Barry Raebeck a practicing secondary school English teacher shares the grading strategies that he uses so successfully with his own students Ample discussion is given to not only grading techniques but also to other important issues surrounding the philosophy and ethics of grading These include test construction rubric creation grade friendly projects assessment without grades and cultivating student ownership of the grading process Using these strategies can bolster student interest and achievement in the classroom and can dispel the all too familiar behavioral and attention problems Written for teachers by a teacher this concise straightforward and practical book will help your own gradebook look quite differently Encouraging Diversity in Higher Education Kate

Hughes, 2016-08-05 Encouraging Diversity in Higher Education Supporting Student Success provides an overview of the widening participation movement in Higher Education in the United Kingdom United States Australia and New Zealand It argues that universities should revitalise their learning and teaching practices to better meet the diverse learning needs of contemporary undergraduate students Approachable in execution this book provides an evidence based set of classroom practices which readers will readily be able to relate to and use successfully Answering questions such as How can I enrich my undergraduate teaching How can I help undergraduate students engage fully with their learning How can help undergraduate students to quickly acclimatise to Higher Education How can I help undergraduate students from diverse backgrounds excel at university This book discusses economic and discursive drivers used to increase the numbers of undergraduate students who were the first in their families to enter university and some of the ways in which universities responded to the growing percentage of such students In so doing it considers the learning needs of diverse students and discusses the views of academic teaching staff who have used transparent pedagogies in their classrooms Including forty five teaching strategies designed to generate highly engaged socially inclusive classrooms this is the first book to offer both a theoretical background of the need to approach learning and teaching in contemporary universities in innovative ways and a practical step by step guide to using a suite of transparent pedagogies These focus on building inclusive classroom communities generating academic literacies developing collaborative learning skills and encouraging students to think critically This book will be a useful companion for both early career academics and those with experience but dealing with a new student cohort It will also be of great interest to those teaching or studying the many professional qualifications in tertiary education Kate Hughes is the President of the Australian Sociological Association TASA and Senior Consultant of Teaching and Learning at the Australian Catholic University She is the co author of Australian Sociology A Changing Society the market leading undergraduate text in Australia now in its fourth edition Teaching with Clarity Tony Frontier,2021-06-24 Feeling overwhelmed constantly on a daily basis has unfortunately become the status quo among educators But it doesn t have to be Schools need to stop adding more programs strategies activities resources projects assessments and meetings Though they are often implemented with the best intentions these things ultimately end up as clutter that which inhibits our ability to help students learn Instead teachers need more clarity which emerges when we prioritize our efforts to do less with greater focus This isn t simply a matter of teachers doing less Rather teachers need to be intentional and prioritize their efforts to develop deeper understanding among students In Teaching with Clarity Tony Frontier focuses on three fundamental questions to help reduce curricular and organizational clutter in the interest of clarity and focus What does it mean to understand What is most important to understand How do we prioritize our strategic effort to help students understand what is most important By prioritizing clear success criteria intentional design meaningful feedback and a shared purpose teachers can begin to clear away the curricular clutter that overwhelms the profession and embrace the clarity that emerges
