RSPB Spotlight: Otters Nicola Chester,2014-04-24 Otters by Nicola Chester is an accessible and lively account of an intriguing and much loved animal that surprisingly is still endangered and rarely seen despite a recent resurgence that has seen it expand from the remote countryside into our cities Nicola s charming informed text brings this elusive and exciting mammal into sharper focus revealing what an otter is and how they live feed play and breed Nicola reflects on how otters exist in our imaginations culturally and how that has changed over the years She also examines the many challenges otters have faced exposing what brought them to the brink of extinction and explores the challenges we face in trying to find and watch otters in the wild Each Spotlight title is carefully designed to introduce readers to the lives and behaviour of our favourite birds and mammals

RSPB Spotlight: Otters Nicola Chester,2016-07-28 Each Spotlight title is carefully designed to introduce readers to the lives and behaviour of our favourite birds and mammals Otters by Nicola Chester is an accessible and lively account of an intriguing and much loved animal that surprisingly is still endangered and rarely seen despite a recent resurgence that has seen it expand from the remote countryside into our cities Nicola s charming informed text brings this elusive and exciting mammal into sharper focus revealing what an otter is and how they live feed play and breed Nicola reflects on how otters exist in our imaginations culturally and how that has changed over the years She also examines the many challenges otters have faced exposing what brought them to the brink of extinction and explores the challenges we face in trying to find and watch otters in the wild

On Gallows Down Nicola Chester,2021-10-07 It s ever so good Political passionate one that ripples and undulates with protest change hope and the search for home From the girl catching the eye of the peace women of Greenham Common to the young woman protesting the loss of ancient and beloved trees and as a mother raising a family in a farm cottage in the shadow of grand country estates this is the story of how Nicola Chester came to write as a means of protest The story of how she discovered the rich seam of resistance that runs through her village of Newbury and its people from the English Civil War to the Swing Riots and the battle against the Newbury Bypass And the story of the hope she finds in the rewilding of Greenham Common after the military left the stories told by the landscapes of Watership Down the gallows perched high on Inkpen Beacon and Highclere Castle the setting of Downton Abbey Nature is indelibly linked to belonging for Nicola She charts her story through the walks she takes with her children across the chalk hills of the North Wessex Downs though the song of the nightingale and the red kites fieldfares skylarks and lapwings that accompany her the badger cubs she watches at night the velvety mole she discovers in her garden and the cuckoo whose return she awaits On Gallows Down tells of how Nicola came to realize that it is she who can decide where she belongs for home is a place in nature and imagination which must be protected through words and actions We are writing for our very lives and for those wild lives we share this one lonely planet with Nicola Chester

Ghosts of the Farm Nicola Chester,2025-09-30 From the Wainwright Nature Prize Highly Commended author Nicola Chester a rural narrative between two women in two different eras who both wanted to become farmers Nicola Chester will come to be seen as a Nan Shepherd of our time Nick Acheson author of The Meaning of Geese This is the story of Miss White a woman who lived in the author's village 80 years ago a pioneer who realised her ambition to become a farmer during the Second World War and how she worked to become accepted within this community Nicola Chester too dreamed of becoming a farmer but working with horses was the only path open to her Was it easier for women to become farmers in the 1940s than it is now Moving between Nicola's own attempts to work outdoors and Miss White's desire to farm a generation earlier Nicola explores the parallels between their lives and the differences Miss White buys a derelict farm and begins to renovate and modernize it As ghost barn owls flit between these two worlds Nicola draws connections with farming and rural life in both times from the role of women in rural communities in the modern day to Miss White's experience in the 1940s And how those farming modernizations have left the modern day with both a denuded landscape and farming community and a disconnect from nature Increasingly Nicola's research into past and present interlinks and illuminates her own battles to raise awareness of rural communities outdoor work and the ongoing loss of farmland birds that were so familiar to Miss White An absolutely fascinating insight into women and farming Nicola Chester really knows how to bring the past alive Claire Fuller author of The Memory of Animals On Gallows Down Nicola Chester, 2021-10-07 It's ever so good Political passionate one that ripples and undulates with protest change hope and the search for home From the girl catching the eye of the peace women of Greenham Common to the young woman protesting the loss of ancient and beloved trees and as a mother raising a family in a farm cottage in the shadow of grand country estates this is the story of how Nicola Chester came to write as a means of protest The story of how she discovered the rich seam of resistance that runs through her village of Newbury and its people from the English Civil War to the Swing Riots and the battle against the Newbury Bypass And the story of the hope she finds in the rewilding of Greenham Common after the military left the stories told by the landscapes of Watership Down the gallows perched high on Inkpen Beacon and Highclere Castle the setting of Downton Abbey Nature is indelibly linked to belonging for Nicola She charts her story through the walks she takes with her children across the chalk hills of the North Wessex Downs though the song of the nightingale and the red kites fieldfares skylarks and lapwings that accompany her the badger cubs she watches at night the velvety mole she discovers in her garden and the cuckoo whose return she awaits On Gallows Down tells of how Nicola came to realize that it is she who can decide where she belongs for home is a place in nature and imagination which must be protected through words and actions We are writing for our very lives and for those wild lives we share this one lonely planet with Nicola Chester RSPB Spotlight Ducks and Geese Marianne Taylor, 2020-05-28 RSPB Spotlight Ducks and Geese is packed with eye catching informative colour photos and features succinct detailed text written by a knowledgeable naturalist This is a detailed biography of ducks and geese that breed in or regularly visit the UK covering 30 species in all It will include chapters on the evolution of ducks and geese their place in the natural world their anatomy and physiology various feeding methods spectacular courtship displays and diverse breeding behaviour Marianne Taylor reveals their often epic migrations and examine their social interactions with their own and other species including their unusual readiness to hybridise She also details their relationships with humankind over the centuries including their presence in folklore and literature and their role in our lives as both prey and pets She explores their presence as feral and sometimes invasive species outside their natural ranges and their current status within their native wild ranges as the group includes several species recently recognised as being of global conservation concern

The Feeding Ecology of the Otter on Three Northumbrian Watersheds Nicola Jane Pautard, 1981 Abstract The diet of the otter on three Northumbrian rivers was assessed using spraint analysis A total of 167 spraints were collected between March and June 1980 80 from the North Tyne 32 from the Blyth and 55 from the Wansbeck Font Spraints were analysed using keys photographs and reference collections and where possible back calculations of fish size were attempted Results showed that fish formed the majority of the prey intake mammal and bird occurrence were rare The North Tyne showing the greatest variety in prey species taken Eel were found to be the major fish prey taken on the North Tyne and Blyth and bullhead on the Wansbeck Font In general similar size prey species were taken on the three watersheds and seasonal data suggests a reduction in crayfish amphibia Cyprinidae trout and perch in the summer compared to the spring diet The results show no evidence of competition for food between mink and otter on the North Tyne
