Rwanda: Rebuilding of a Nation A Ndahiro,J. Rwagatare,2015-12-01 Rwanda Rebuilding of a Nation is a story that takes the reader through a sweeping panorama of Rwandas history from its recent past as a nearfailed state to its present as a beacon of hope and successful innovations Rwandas rise from the ashes detailed in this book is the culmination of a visionary and laborious process of rebuilding a nation from the brink of collapse It is also a story of reconciling a people that had been taught to see each other as enemies Twenty years ago the world wrote off Rwanda after the worst genocide in recent times left over one million of its people dead and another three million in refugee camps in neighbouring countries The country was broken in every way possible socially culturally economically and politically Today Rwanda has been rebuilt and has become a respectable country receiving many international accolades for its extraordinary leadership and achievements The backbone and custodian of this agenda has been and remains the Rwanda Patriotic Front RPF This was the case right from its inception before and during the liberation struggle to the implementation of this transformation The book traces the success of the RPF driven transformation which derives from the combination of three interrelated factors First a people centred governance that has spearheaded community development ownership and accountability Second home grown initiatives in different sectors that have helped to adequately respond to extraordinary challenges And third a visionary leadership that listens to its people and inspires them towards self reliance and dignity Finally the book shows that Rwandas achievements have been possible because the RPFs development agenda is built on power sharing consensus building gender equality and the primacy of security

Reimagining Nigeria's Educational System Joseph A. Balogun,2023-09-20 This book assesses the challenges within the Nigerian educational system and provides a concrete plan to revitalize the low performing system by strengthening high stakes testing at all levels In Nigeria many citizens believe that the solution to the country s low performance in education is to eliminate high stakes standardized testing High stakes testing refers to applying standardized student achievement tests as a primary mechanism to evaluate students teachers and their school s performance This book argues that the poor quality of education and low ranking of Nigeria s educational system is not related to the negative consequences of high stakes testing but rather is due to many intrinsic factors By conducting a comparative analysis of six high performing education systems worldwide the book offers a comparative summative evaluation of the educational system and offers recommendations This book will be of interest to policymakers and scholars in the fields of African education higher education quality and global studies African studies management and administration leadership and professional development studies Joseph Abiodun Balogun is former Dean and retired Distinguished University Professor at the College of Health Sciences Chicago State University USA Visiting Professor Program Consultant at the Centre of Excellence in Reproductive Health Innovation University of Benin Nigeria and President CEO Joseph Rehabilitation Center Tinley Park
