The Last Deployment Bronson

Lemer,2011-06-08 In 2003 after serving five and a half years as a carpenter in a North Dakota National Guard engineer unit Bronson Lemer was ready to leave the military behind But six months short of completing his commitment to the army Lemer was deployed on a yearlong tour of duty to Iraq Leaving college life behind in the Midwest he yearns for a lost love and quietly dreams of a future as an openly gay man outside the military He discovers that his father s lifelong example of silent strength has taught him much about being a man and these lessons help him survive in a war zone and to conceal his sexuality as he is required to do by the U S military The Last Deployment is a moving provocative chronicle of one soldier s struggle to reconcile military brotherhood with self acceptance Lemer captures the absurd nuances of a soldier s daily life growing a mustache to disguise his fear wearing pantyhose to battle sand fleas and exchanging barbs with Iraqis while driving through Baghdad But most strikingly he describes the poignant reality faced by gay servicemen and servicewomen who must mask their identities while serving a country that disowns them Often funny sometimes anguished The Last Deployment paints a deeply personal portrait of war in the twenty first century InSight Out Book Club selection Bronson Lemer named one of Instinct magazine s Leading Men 2011 QPB Book Club selection Finalist Minnesota Book Awards Finalist Over the Rainbow Selection American Library Association Amazon Top Ten 10 Gay Lesbian Books of 2011

The Running Life Steven McCann,2021-09-09 Running is a part of our consciousness and subconsciousness all through life We run as children chasing kites and ice cream trucks and run away from irate parents We run as teenagers in our sports We run as adults to stay in shape and as elderly people we run after toddlers that suddenly escape our protection We run in nightmares We run in happy dreams for the exuberance of pure freedom We run to catch subways buses and planes We run to meet our lovers Our clocks run fast or slow and we run late or early My running stories capture some of the ways we run A kindergartener chases his mother for an entire mile so he can walk her to the grocery store A high school track athlete runs to win the heart of a classmate A college coed wakes up late for her final exam and runs frantically across campus to preserve her grade point Another young woman runs to escape a rapist An elderly man watches joggers sweep by on a country road from his seat in a wheelchair holding in his heart all the wonderful miles he once ran himself Run to Overcome Meb Keflezighi, 2014-06-06 The incredible true story of Meb Keflezighi winner of the 2014 Boston Marathon When Meb Keflezighi signed up to run the Boston Marathon in 2014 no one expected him to be the first to cross the finish line But if there s one thing Meb knows how to do it s overcome Yet Meb is the living embodiment of the American dream His family came to the U S to escape poverty and a violent war 12 year old Meb spoke no English at the time and had never raced a mile Thanks to hard work and determination he excelled academically and became an Olympic silver medalist But it all came crashing down when Meb a favorite for the Beijing Olympics fractured his hip and pelvis during the trials and was left literally crawling That same day he lost his close friend and fellow marathoner to a cardiac arrest Devastated Meb was about to learn whether his faith in God the values his parents had taught him and his belief that he was born to run were enough to see him through Run to Overcome is the story of a true American champion who discovered the real meaning of victory against all odds Now with an updated chapter after Meb s amazing finish in Boston
