Sheila learns to struggle through harassment physical abuse emotional manipulation teenage pregnancy and multiple betrayals Sheila is the focal point but Love First poignantly describes how parents have a huge hand in helping children grow into better or worse adults It also describes the story how three girls Sheila Lita and Sarah despite growing up in the same environment all go on their own drastically different paths One thing is for sure if Sheila wants to make it out she cannot stay pure and innocent She must fight fire with fire She grows from strong willed good intentioned albeit slightly gullible young woman into a fierce adult who vows to fight for her children till the very end Unfortunately through the process she becomes the very thing that she wholeheartedly despises Her mother Love, Tussles, and Takedowns (A sexy tough tomboy & wounded soldier small town romance) Violet Duke, 2015-01-29 He s a better fighter A fighter to the core Hudson Reyes has collected enough battle scars now to last several lifetimes But after his combat injuries retire him from the life he wasn t ready to give up Hudson finds himself spending the carbon copy days of his new career as a Hollywood fight scene and weapons specialist just doing what he knows best surviving Until he meets her The one woman who makes him want to live again With wounds as deep as his own she s a scrappy little thing an angel faced paradox that comes as a package deal with an offbeat town of admirably protective but downright nosy folks And a wicked roundhouse kick that s become intimately familiar with his head but she has all the weapons An antique arms authenticator by day and a self defense instructor by night Liana Lin has made a living turning the unthinkable demons of her past into the passions that fuel and fill her life So when the unjustly handsome man she s been unable to stop thinking about literally takes her to the mat with martial arts styles unlike anything she s ever seen pinning her with a molten hot stare that melts her like a marshmallow trapped between a graham cracker and a chocolate square Lia flips into no holds barred fight mode Because if one man could find a way to disarm her carefully built defenses it d be him Now if only they could stop sparring long enough to find out

Knockout Leger Grindon, 2011-05-10 Knockout The Boxer and Boxing in American Cinema is the first book length study of the Hollywood boxing film a popular movie entertainment since the 1930s that includes such classics as Million Dollar Baby Rocky and Raging Bull The boxer stands alongside the cowboy the gangster and the detective as a character that shaped America s ideas of manhood Leger Grindon relates the Hollywood boxing film to the literature of Jack London Ernest Hemingway and Clifford Odets the influence of ring champions particularly Joe Louis and Muhammad Ali and controversies surrounding masculinity race and sports Knockout breaks new ground in film genre study by focusing on the fundamental dramatic conflicts uniting both documentary and fictional films with compelling social concerns The boxing film portrays more than the rise and fall of a champion it exposes the body to reveal the spirit Not simply a brute the screen boxer dramatizes conflicts and aspirations central to an American audience s experience This book features chapters on the conventions of the boxing film the history of the genre and its relationship to famous ring champions and self contained treatments of thirty two individual films including a chapter devoted to Raging Bull Brutal Choreographies J. Brooks

Bouson, 1993 Brutal Choreographies investigates the novels of Margaret Atwood focusing on their psychological and political concerns. Drawing on recent feminist and psychoanalytic theory, J. Brooks Bouson examines Atwood's recurring self, family, and romantic dramas; her novelistic subversion of romantic love ideology; and her critique of gender and power politics. Bouson also considers the oppositional strategies used in Atwood's novels: their punitive plotting and enactments of female revenge fantasies; their dialogic resistance to romantic discourse; and their self-conscious manipulation and sabotage of romance and other traditional plot lines and conventions. From the protofeminism of The Edible Woman, the cultural feminism of Surfacing, and the examination of the perils of Gothic thinking in Lady Oracle, to the domestic and sexual warfare of Life Before Man, the anti-feminist backlash terrors of Bodily Harm, and The Handmaid's Tale, and the power politics of female relationships in Cat's Eye, Atwood's women-centered fiction has strong oppositional appeal. Because Atwood does not shun what she calls the story of the disaster, which is the world her tales are often brutal, portraying female victimization at the hands of the husband or male lover, the mother or the female friend. But if the Atwood novel has the power to disturb, compel, and at times brutalize its reader, it is also carefully choreographed using form and design to contain and control the female fears, anxieties, and anger that drive the narrative.
