Don Wright,2001-08 Unique RV industry insider s perspective on buying new and used RVs Topics covered include prices when to buy used instead of new how to negotiate to get the best deal and how to measure value The Minor Prophets Frederick Carl Eiselen,1907 Selected Works of St. John Chrysostom St. John Chrysostom, Chrysostom s career is one more exemplification of the perennial conflict between the Church and the world The Church is to act as the salt of the earth the city set on an hill the light of the world the temple of the Living God her ideals will always be too high even for the saints to attain but it is the few who reach forth unto those things which are before that raise the average attainments of mankind Yet she must not break the bruised reed or quench the smoking flax by pitching her requirements too high for the practical use of the ordinary man living in the world and condemning things which God hath not condemned She may neither make the heart of the righteous sad nor strengthen the hands of the wicked by promising them life Thus the problem before the Church at all times is to steer her way between the two extremes of undue severity and compliant subservience Hence men of different temperaments will form different judgments upon Chrysostom s career One temperament is all for severity sometimes with the highest motives sometimes unconsciously it may be otherwise it demands asceticism in life rigour in doctrine strictness in the enjoyment of the pleasures of the world Another with high or again perhaps unconsciously with low motives thinks that men may best be won by being content with a low standard with an eye to the possibilities of the multitude rather than of the few it seeks to teach that all worldly things are gifts of God richly given us to enjoy The first condemns the second as truckling to the world the second looks upon the first as a dreamer of vain dreams The first rebukes out of season as well as in season the second marvels at his want of tact There can be no doubt which is the point of view taken in this Dialogue Records of events which so deeply stirred the hearts of men are naturally coloured by the prejudices of their writers it is hard to believe that all the denunciations of Chrysostom s enemies contained in the treatise were truly deserved The strong common sense shown in Chrysostom s writings though sometimes obscured by extravagance of expression and ignorance of economic laws in regard to the riches the pomps and the vanities of the world generally preserved him from the bitterness with which his disciple denounces them But those who fall short of our author s ideal have leaped upon the ministry dealt deceitfully with the word of God and perverted the Christian teaching No language is too strong the priest who has not the virtues of the monk is worthy only of a company of satyrs or a priesthood of Dionysus True the sword could not be blunt or the bold word be left unspoken and Chrysostom did indeed lift up his voice more clearly than a trumpet Yet in spite of Palladius defence of Chrysostom s zeal it is difficult to rise from the study of the various records without forming the conclusion that in regard to Eudoxia he spake unadvisedly with his lips it seems impossible to doubt that the charges of comparing her publicly to Jezebel and Herodias were founded on fact Because his eloquence had stirred the populace to reform and he had the support of many warm friends he thought himself like Savonarola in later days strong enough to attack her and the shining of his light in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation was extinguished for ever Was he right or wrong We answer the question according to our respective temperaments Yet whatever be our judgment we know that the world does after all respect high ideals and unconsciously is raised by them though it may seem to go on its own way and prefer to join in the censure upon the outspoken tongue Commentary on the Old Testament ... ,1907
