P. Clarke,Thomas A. O'Donoghue,2013-07-18 How do different contexts influence the nature and character of school leadership This book is predicated on the simple yet profound observation that school leadership can only be understood within the context in which it is exercised The observation is particularly valid in relation to post conflict societies especially when they have eventuated from new wars Schools in these contexts face highly complex circumstances and a level of environmental turbulence requiring different kinds of leadership from those operating in less complicated and relatively stable situations By assembling an impressive array of international experts this book investigates a much neglected area of research Each chapter highlights the importance of context for understanding the realities of school leadership and reveals the challenges and influences that school leaders face as well as the strategies they adopt to deal with the complexities of their work In particular valuable insights are provided into how intractable problems faced by schools can affect student professional and organizational learning agendas There are also important glimpses of the progression that can be made in schools by Enhancing the curriculum Energizing teaching capacity and Optimising leadership capacity Depictions of post new war environments include Angola Ghana Sri Lanka Rwanda Kenya Solomon Islands Lebanon Kosovo Timor Leste and Northern Ireland The book will be key reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying educational leadership comparative education and education policy Differentiation and Articulation in Tertiary Education Systems Njuguna Ng'ethe,George Subotzky,George Afeti,2008-01-01 This title explores an area of tertiary education that is currently understudied this is the extent and nature of differentiation and articulation in African tertiary education systems The overall finding is that the binary system is dominant characterised by universities and polytechnics as distinct types of institutions Differentiation is clearly evident in Africa However though varied in nature and extent the differentiation is mostly horizontal as opposed to vertical Articulation on the other hand seems to be in its infancy as some universities in their admission requirements d

Those We Throw Away Are Diamonds Mondiant Dogon,2022-10-11 A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice Named a Best Nonfiction Book of 2021 by Kirkus A New York Times Book Review Paperback Row Selection Shortlisted for the Moore Prize for Human Rights Writing A stunning and heartbreaking lens on the global refugee crisis from a man who faced the very worst of humanity and survived to advocate for displaced people around the world One day when Mondiant Dogon a Bagogwe Tutsi born in the Democratic Republic of Congo was only three years old his father s lifelong friend a Hutu man came to their home with a machete in his hand and warned the family they were to be killed within hours Dogon s family fled into the forest initiating a long and dangerous journey into Rwanda They made their way to the first of several UN tent cities in which they would spend decades But their search for a safe haven had just begun Hideous violence stalked them in the camps Even though Rwanda famously has a former refugee for a president in Paul Kagame refugees in that country face enormous prejudice and acute want For much of his life Dogon and his family ate barely enough to keep themselves from starving He fled back to Congo in search of the better life that had been lost but there he was imprisoned and left without any option but to become a child soldier For most refugees the camp starts as an oasis but soon becomes quicksand impossible to leave Yet Dogon managed to be one of the few refugees he knew to go to college Though he hid his status from his fellow students out of shame eventually he would emerge as an advocate for his people Rarely do refugees get to tell their own stories We see them only for a moment if at all in flight Syrians winding through the desert children searching a Greek shore for their parents families gathered at the southern border of the United States But through his writing Dogon took control of his own narrative and spoke up for forever refugees everywhere As Dogon once wrote in a poem Those we throw away are diamonds

From Death to Life Through Forgiveness Evelyne Mukasonga,2024-04-04 Evelyne Mukasonga s memoir is a story of survival and forgiveness The book describes the author s happy childhood in Gisenyi in the home of her parents who were successful business owners and devout Christians The mixed ethnic background of Evelyne s parents her father was Hutu and her mother Tutsi became a reason for her persecution The book quickly evolves to a harrowing account of the author s narrow escapes during the months of slaughter in 1994 The author survives hiding at family friends houses disguising herself to escape certain death and even facing an angry mob of murderers with equanimity The book does not end there however but follows Evelyne to her refuge in Goma DRC where she meets her husband and has her first son What starts as a safe haven for Evelyne quickly turns into another nightmare when the DRC turns into the site of the first African World War Evelyne and her family get caught up in the struggle between President Laurent Kabila s forces and rebel militia aiming at ousting the president As Rwanda supports the Congolese rebels and she is perceived as Rwandese Tutsi her life and that of her son are again in danger She has to flee again within Zaire hiding starving overcoming disease and suffering imprisonment in a man s detention facility with her one year old son Rescued by the UN and resettled in the USA Evelyne and her husband become peace builders and community activists
