Math Know-How Thomasenia Lott Adams, Joanne LaFramenta, 2013-12-10 From two math coaches who really know how Have you ever wished there were a single resource to help you tackle your most persistent teaching issues once and for all To engage students in more meaningful ways To provide the tools you need to increase students understanding of key mathematical concepts All at the same time Math coaches Thomasenia Lott Adams and Joanne LaFramenta have just written it With the help of this book you ll be armed with the know how to employ strategies to achieve the CCSS especially the Mathematical Practices make purposeful teaching decisions facilitate differentiated instruction teach and learn with manipulatives use technology appropriately Writing in the Social Studies Aaron Pribble, 2021-04-01 Writing in the Social Studies is a practical guide for educators On each page are strategies tips and takeaways for teachers to implement in their classroom while every chapter concludes with helpful handouts to distribute directly to students Beginning with a framework and pacing guide Writing in the Social Studies examines foundational academic and real world writing concluding with a methodology for grading and a spirited plea for teachers to write themselves Teachers who believe in teaching skills through content finally have a blueprint from which to work Those who understand it is imperative students graduate with the ability to think critically and express a point of view now have a vehicle with which to achieve their goals Writing in the Social Studies will be the first book to tackle this crucial yet neglected corner of the curriculum There is a desperate need for professional development in this area and therefore also tremendous opportunity It is a professional imperative that social studies educators teach a variety of writing skills through content As a result they should have access to a resource which clearly and engagingly shows them how This is Writing in the Social Studies Engaging Students With Disabilities in Remote Learning Environments Huckvale, Manina Urgolo, McNeal, Kelly, 2023-02-24 For students with disabilities the road to engagement in remote learning environments often requires the teacher and learning environment to accommodate their disability as well as build the skills necessary for success in remote learning activities It is imperative that all teachers not only special education teachers be prepared to teach and engage students with disabilities in remote learning platforms Engaging Students With Disabilities in Remote Learning Environments focuses on research based practices as well as case studies relating to ensuring equitable access to remote learning environments for students with disabilities The book also discusses new applications that can benefit students with disabilities strategies for promoting collaboration to increase virtual engagement and a dissemination of best practices and standards that support effectively engaging and promoting student learning for students with disabilities in remote environments Covering topics such as assessment virtual classrooms and teacher development this reference work is ideal for administrators policymakers researchers scholars academicians practitioners educators and students Common Formative Assessment Kim Bailey, Chris Jakicic, 2011-10-11 Teams that engage in designing using and responding to common formative assessments are more knowledgeable about their own standards more assessment literate and able to develop more strategies for helping all students learn In this conversational guide the authors offer tools templates and protocols to incorporate common formative assessments into the practices of a PLC to monitor and enhance student learning Educational Leadership in an Age of Accountability Daniel L. Duke,Margaret Grogan,Pamela D. Tucker,Walter F. Heinecke,2012-02-01 The insistence by policymakers and politicians that educators be held accountable for student outcomes has resulted in dramatic shifts in the responsibilities of department chairs principals and superintendents Educational Leadership in an Age of Accountability explores these changes in Virginia following its implementation of an ambitious accountability plan that called for standards of learning statewide high stakes tests standards of accreditation and annual school performance report cards This book examines factors such as the fate of students who fail state tests achievement differences between black and white students ethical issues surrounding accountability measures and the increasing politicization of local schooling Educational Leadership in an Age of Accountability shows that accountability pressure has done more than previous reforms to foster instructional leadership

PLC+ Douglas Fisher,Nancy Frey,John Almarode,Karen Flories,Dave Nagel,2019-05-16 What makes a powerful and results driven Professional Learning Community PLC The answer is collaborative work that expands the emphasis on student learning and leverages individual teacher efficacy into collective teacher efficacy PLC Better Decisions and Greater Impact by Design calls for strong and effective PLCs plus and that plus is YOU Until now the PLC movement has been focused almost exclusively on students and what they were or were not learning But keeping student learning at the forefront requires that we also recognize the vital role that you play in the equation of teaching and learning This means that PLCs must take on two additional challenges maximizing your individual expertise while harnessing the power of the collaborative expertise you can develop with your peers PLC is grounded in four cross cutting themes a focus on equity of access and opportunity high expectations for all students a commitment to building individual self efficacy and the collective efficacy of the professional learning community and effective team activation and facilitation to move from discussion to action The PLC framework supports educators in considering five essential questions as they work together to improve student learning Where are we going Where are we now How do we move learning forward What did we learn today Who benefited and who did not benefit The PLC framework leads educators to question practices as well as outcomes It broadens the focus on student learning to encompass educational equity and teaching efficacy and in doing so it leads educators to plan and implement learning communities that maximize individual expertise while harnessing the power of collaborative efficacy Learning That Transfers Julie Stern,Krista Ferraro,Kayla Duncan,Trevor Aleo,2021-03-03 It is a pleasure to have a full length treatise on this most important topic and may this focus on transfer become much more debated taught and valued in our schools John Hattie Teach students to use their learning to unlock new situations Learning That Transfers empowers teachers and curriculum designers alike to harness the critical concepts of traditional disciplines while building students capacity to navigate interpret and transfer their learning to solve novel and complex modern problems Using a backwards design approach this hands on guide walks teachers step by step through the process of identifying curricular goals establishing assessment targets and planning curriculum and instruction that facilitates the transfer of learning to new and challenging situations Key features include Thinking prompts to spur reflection and inform curricular planning and design Next day strategies that offer tips for practical immediate action in the classroom Design steps that outline critical moments in creating curriculum for learning that transfers Links to case studies discipline specific examples and podcast interviews with educators A companion website that hosts templates planning guides and flexible options for adapting current curriculum documents
