Same Family, Different Colors Lori L. Tharps, 2017-10-03 Weaving together personal stories history and analysis Same Family Different Colors explores the myriad ways skin color politics affect family dynamics in the United States Colorism and color bias the preference for or presumed superiority of people based on the color of their skin is a pervasive and damaging but rarely openly discussed phenomenon In this unprecedented book Lori L Tharps explores the issue in African American Latino Asian American and mixed race families and communities by weaving together personal stories history and analysis The result is a compelling portrait of the myriad ways skin color politics affect family dynamics in the United States Tharps the mother of three mixed race children with three distinct skin colors uses her own family as a starting point to investigate how skin color difference is dealt with Her journey takes her across the country and into the lives of dozens of diverse individuals all of whom have grappled with skin color politics and speak candidly about experiences that sometimes scarred them From a Latina woman who was told she couldn't be in her best friend's wedding photos because her dark skin would spoil the pictures to a light skinned African American man who spent his entire childhood trying to be Black Tharps illuminates the complex and multifaceted ways that colorism affects our self esteem and shapes our lives and relationships Along with intimate and revealing stories Tharps adds a historical overview and a contemporary cultural critique to contextualize how various communities and individuals navigate skin color politics Groundbreaking and urgent Same Family Different Colors is a solution seeking journey to the heart of identity politics so that this more subtle cousin to racism in the author's words will be exposed and confronted

Trade Is Not a Four-Letter Word Fred P. Hochberg, 2021-01-26 A sprightly and clear eyed testimonial to the value of globalization The Wall Street Journal as seen through six surprising everyday goods the taco salad the Honda Odyssey the banana the iPhone the college degree and the blockbuster HBO series Game of Thrones Trade allows us to sell what we produce at home and purchase what we don't It lowers prices and gives us greater variety and innovation Yet understanding our place in the global trade network is rarely simple Trade has become an easy excuse for struggling economies a scapegoat for our failures to adapt to a changing world and for many Americans on both the right and the left nothing short of a four letter word But as Fred P Hochberg reminds us trade is easier to understand than we commonly think In Trade Is Not a Four Letter Word you'll learn how NAFTA became a populist punching bag on both sides of the aisle You'll learn how Americans can avoid the grim specter of the 10 banana And you'll finally discover the truth about whether or not as President Trump has famously tweeted trade wars are good and easy to win Spoiler alert they aren't Hochberg debunks common trade myths by pulling back the curtain on six everyday products each with a surprising story to tell the taco salad the Honda Odyssey the banana the iPhone the college degree and the smash hit HBO series Game of Thrones Behind these six examples are stories that help explain not only how trade has shaped our lives so far but also how we can use trade to build a better future for our own families for America and for the world Trade Is Not
