Fatty Fatty Boom Boom Rabia Chaudry, 2022-11-08 A delicious and mouthwatering book about food and family the complicated love for both and how that shapes us into who we are I absolutely loved it Valerie Bertinelli Rabia Chaudry known from the podcast Serial and her bestselling book Adnan's Story as well as her own wildly popular podcast Undisclosed serves up a candid and intimate memoir about food body image and growing up in a tight knit but sometimes overly concerned Pakistani immigrant family My entire life I have been less fat and more fat but never not fat Rabia Chaudry was raised with a lot of love and that love looked like food Delicious Pakistani dishes fresh roti chaat pakoras and shorba and also Pizza Hut Dairy Queen and an abundance of American processed foods as her family discovered its adopted country through its fast food At the same time her family was becoming increasingly alarmed about their chubby daughter's future Most important how would she ever get married In Fatty Fatty Boom Boom Chaudry chronicles the dozens of times she tried and failed to achieve what she was told was her ideal weight The truth is though she always loved food too much to hold a grudge against it At once an ode to Pakistani cuisine including Chaudry's favorite recipes a love letter to her Muslim family both here and in Lahore and a courageously honest portrait of a woman grappling with a body that gets the job done but refuses to meet the expectations of others For anyone who has ever been weighed down by their weight whatever it is

Chaudry shows us how freeing it is to finally make peace with body we have Multicultural Projects Index Mary Anne Pilger, 1998 An index to multicultural learning projects for kindergarten through eighth grade classrooms which appear in over 1 700 books including handicrafts foods games and activities arranged alphabetically by subject with cross references and complete bibliographic information

Indian Africa: Minorities of Indian-Pakistani Origin in Eastern Africa Adam, Michel, 2015-10-22 Kenya Uganda and Tanzania have minorities from the Indian sub continent amongst their population The East African Indians mostly reside in the main cities particularly Nairobi Dar es Salaam Zanzibar Mombasa Kampala they can also be found in smaller urban centres and in the remotest of rural townships They play a leading social and economic role as they work in business manufacturing and the service industry and make up a large proportion of the liberal professions They are divided into multiple socio religious communities but united in a mutual feeling of meta cultural identity This book aims at painting a broad picture of the communities of Indian origin in East Africa striving to include changes that have occurred since the end of the 1980s The different contributions explore questions of race and citizenship national loyalties and cosmopolitan identities local attachment and transnational networks Drawing upon anthropology history sociology and demography Indian Africa depicts a multifaceted population and analyses how the past and the present shape their sense of belonging their relations with others their professional and political engagement
