problem was how to legitimise his rebellion to secure crucial investment capital markets trade and more His antagonist the British Prime Minister Harold Wilson was determined not to transfer sovereignty until Rhodesia accepted African majority rule in common with the rest of Africa Given British feelings for their Rhodesian kith and kin and Rhodesia's landlocked position Wilson eschewed the use of force He could only impose sanctions but hoped they would defeat Smith in a matter weeks rather than months The Rhodesians however evaded the sanctions with such success that they forced Wilson to negotiate a settlement Negotiations were nevertheless doomed because the self confident Rhodesians would not accept a period of direct British rule while rapid progress to majority rule was made or the imposition of restraints on powers they had possessed since gaining self government in 1923 In tune with their allies in the African National Congress of South Africa the Rhodesian or Zimbabwean African nationalists had already adopted the Marxist concept of the Armed Struggle as a means to power Sponsored by the Communist Bloc its surrogates and allies they began a series of armed incursions from their safe haven in Zambia Although bloodily and easily repulsed they would learn from their mistakes as the Rhodesian forces would discover in the 1970s Consequently this is a tale of sanctions negotiations and counter insurgency warfare
