Pinder, 2012-07-13 American Multicultural Studies Diversity of Race Ethnicity Gender and Sexuality provides an interdisciplinary view of multicultural studies in the United States addressing a wide range of topics that continue to define and shape this area of study This collection of essays responds to the need to open up a rich avenue for addressing current and continuing issues of race gender ethnicity sexuality cultural diversity and education in their varied forms Substantial thematic overlaps are found between sections and essays all of which are oriented toward a single broad objective to develop new and different ways of addressing how multicultural issues in their discursive sociocultural contexts are inextricably linked to the operations of power Power as a site of resistance to which it invariably gives rise is tackled from a perspective that attends to the complexities of America's history and politics      Generational Key to History Michael A. Susko, 2025-01-17 Generational Key to History Tracing Phases From Ancient Egypt to America This work explores the use of a time chart based on generations as a way to understand history A sole reliance on yearly dating tends to obscure the historical reality and deter us from further exploration However patterns are revealed if we number generations and we become intrigued by the connections and hypotheses raised The author uses 15 year intervals to date events and mark when people turn 30 and tend to enter history The 15 year generational interval was first used by the medieval historian Bede and later advocated by Ortega E Gasset a leading Spanish philosopher of the 20th century In brief the phases of history found are 1 A partly invisible beginning phase 0 15 generations 2 An establishment phase at 15 20 generations 3 A consolidating and opening up stage at 30 generations 4 A crisis and creativity phase at 40 generations 5 An empire and inclusionary phase at 50 generations and 6 Renewal or rigidification phase at the 60 generational node Importantly special attention is given to the often neglected 30th generational period in which an openness to beauty and light pervade Interestingly these phases also resonate with the human life cycle The tour of cultures covered includes ancient Egypt Israel Judah Rome and the Medieval Modern Taking us into contemporary times America United States is addressed in the second part of this work You are invited to go on an intriguing journey in which generational patterning becomes a Rosetta key for understanding history

Big and Little Histories Marnie Hughes-Warrington, Anne Martin, 2021-08-19 This book introduces students to ethics in historiography through an exploration of how historians in different times and places have explained how history ought to be written and how those views relate to different understandings of ethics No two histories are the same The book argues that this is a good thing because the differences between histories are largely a matter of ethics Looking to histories made across the world and from ancient times until today readers are introduced to a wide variety of approaches to the ethics of history including well known ethical approaches such as the virtue ethics of universal historians and utilitarian approaches to collective biography writing while also discovering new and emerging ideas in the ethics of history Through these approaches readers are encouraged to challenge their ideas about whether humans are separate from other living and non living things and whether machines and animals can write histories The book looks to the fundamental questions posed about the nature of history making by Indigenous history makers and asks whether the ethics at play in the global variety of histories might be better appreciated in professional codes of conduct and approaches to research ethics management Opening up the topic of ethics to show how historians might have viewed ethics differently in the past the book requires no background in ethics or history theory and is open to all of those with an interest in how we think about good histories
