Pease Bay Surf Report:

Surfing and Modernity in the North of Scotland Matthew L. McDowell,2024-09-11 For most people surfing is associated with Hawaii California and Australia with sun sand and scantily clad bodies However after the Second World War surfing also found a more unlikely home the north coast of Scotland In the 1960s and 1970s the first people to surf the Pentland Firth s world class waves braved brutal weather conditions poor or no wetsuits and baffled locals Equally as unlikely as surfing s presence on the north coast was its first permanent community founded amongst workers at a nuclear research facility with a notoriously poor safety record This book discusses the existence and evolution of surfing in the region from the 1960s to the present day It does not however focus just on surfing it also acts as a history of the region itself and examines the possibilities and limits of surfing sport and activities like them being used as a means of reinventing communities This book is therefore a valuable tool for historians sport practitioners and economic policymakers alike what can surfing tell us about the modern Highlands and Islands and indeed contemporary Scotland

The View from the Shoulder Roger Cox,2025-07-03 The story of surfing in Scotland is defined by people who dared to dream in spite of the cold from Neva MacDonald Haig and the coffin lid surfers of Machrihanish who first took to the waves off the west coast in the 1930s with a little help from a local undertaker to Andy Bennetts and the pioneers of the 1960s who discovered many of the nation s best breaks to contemporary big wave surfer Ben Larg a native of the tiny island of Tiree who now travels the world riding skyscraper sized walls of water for a living Scotland is also home to a rich and distinctive surfing culture with its own surfboard shapers surf instructors surf filmmakers surf photographers and surf fashion brands not to mention surf inspired artists and musicians Professional contests held at some of Scotland s best waves have drawn visits from surfing world champions including Tom Curren Sunny Garcia and John John Florence and in recent years Scotland s own surfers have begun to make their presence felt on the competitive stage with the Scottish surf team featuring at the World Surfing Games and at Eurosurf after finally gaining official recognition in 2014 The View From the Shoulder draws together 20 years of surf journalism from the pages of The Scotsman newspaper together with fresh context to create a portrait of a wave riding community like no other
