Trott, 2019-09-18 What do Christianity and librarianship have in common? Netherlands Prime Minister and theologian Abraham Kuyper 1837-1920 was among the first in the modern era to attempt to rejoin the dichotomy of sacred vs secular study when he said no single piece of our mental world is to be hermetically sealed off from the rest. Over the years a number of publications have followed Kuyper's lead yet little has been written on the subject since Greg A. Smith's notable Christian Librarianship 2002. Building on Smith's work this volume seeks to bridge the sacred/secular divide with an exploration of how Christianity and the gospel are manifested through the profession of librarianship. Teaching and Learning English in Japanese Classrooms Darren Elliott, 2023-05-19 This book shows how English language instructors in Japan explored the questions and issues which most closely affected them and their students in the language learning process. Each of the teacher-researchers had a puzzle. After reviewing existing literature each writer found a way to adjust their practice and in these chapters they report on the results. Topics include educational technology, learner autonomy, feedback and novel approaches to listening, reading and writing instruction. Although the contributors are working in Japan, classroom practitioners from the wider international language teaching community can benefit from the practical teaching approaches and accessible descriptions of practitioner research to be found in this book. A secondary audience of educational managers and teacher trainers will also find value in chapters which outline the ways in which an environment conducive to practitioner research can be facilitated.
