The Perfect Norm Sandra Vavra,Sharon L. Spencer,2009-02-01 Our goal in writing this book was to validate teachers for strong efforts in their life s work We often observe teachers frustrations with what they perceive to be a multitude of different hot topics in education that they must attend to now but which they expect to come and go like the last hot topics So we wanted to help readers see similarities between many of these hot topics differentiation multiple intelligences culturally responsive teaching brain friendly strategies authentic assessment and ethical classroom management which we feel are not flashes in the pan And we trust that serious practitioners will not oversimplify the findings of neuroscientists and their application to education Reading studies and books by scientists a number of which are user friendly can help ensure that teachers separate the hype from credible information We have seen this professionally judicious approach in the work of graduate students Kolinski 2007 in adopting brain friendly strategies We have intentionally packed both theoretical research based and practical information in this book because professional educators want to know why they should use certain approaches models and strategies In turn as professionals we should be able to explain why we teach the way we do not to justify but to educate others about our knowledge based reflective decision making processes and the impact on student learning Thus it is important to read Chapter 1 because it lays a foundation Each succeeding chapter 2 6 has unique and compelling twists and turns chock full of ideas to use or to adapt It is possible to gain lots of ideas processes and strategies from reading and implementing or adapting even one of the unit chapters or a part of it While some of the units are explicitly about literacy others focus on content using reading writing speaking and listening as critical in the learning process Thus literacy skills are reinforced and strengthened Additionally some of our colleagues and public school partners have given us feedback that they wanted to implement some of the units and activities themselves So feel free to use this book for self exploration and professional development

Pacific Rim Objective Measurement Symposium (PROMS) 2012 Conference Proceeding Quan Zhang, Hong Yang, 2013-06-13 Entrusted by the Board of Management of the Pacific Rim Objective Measurement Symposium PROMS PROMS2012 is held in Jiaxing China from August 6 9 2012 Over the past years PROMS has been hosted in many parts of the Pacific Rim in Singapore Malaysia Hong Kong Taiwan and Tokyo which has greatly promoted the research of and contributed to the development of Rasch Model in one way or another As early as in 1980s the ideas and concepts regarding IRT was first introduced into China by Prof Gui Shichun my Ph D supervisor and it is Prof Gui who first conducted with great success the ten year long 1990 1999 Equating Project for Matriculation English Test MET in China MET is the most influential entrance examination for higher education administered annually to over 3.3 million candidates then The Equating Project won recognition by Charles Alderson and other foreign counterparts during 1990s Academically those were Good Old Days for Chinese testing experts and psychometricians Then for certain reasons the equating practice abruptly discontinued Therefore in China nowadays the application of IRT based software like BILOG Parscale Iteman 4 and others to real testing problem solving is confined to an extremely small band of people In this sense PROMS2012 meets an important need in that it provides an excellent introduction of IRT and its application And anyone who is seriously interested in research and development in the field of psychometrics or language testing will find such a symposium and related workshops to be an excellent source of information about the application of Rasch Model

PROMS2012 focuses on recent advances in objective measurement and provides an international forum on both the latest research in using Rasch measurement and non Rasch practice MOOCs and Their Afterlives Elizabeth Losh, 2017-08-17 A trio of headlines in the Chronicle of Higher Education seem to say it all in 2013 A Bold Move Toward MOOCs Sends Shock Waves in 2014 Doubts About MOOCs Continue to Rise and in 2015 The MOOC Hype Fades At the beginning of the 2010s MOOCs or Massive Open Online Courses seemed poised to completely revolutionize higher education But now just a few years into the revolution educators enthusiasm seems to have cooled As advocates and critics try to make sense of the rise and fall of these courses both groups are united by one question Where do we go from here Elizabeth Losh has gathered experts from across disciplines education rhetoric philosophy literary studies history computer science and journalism to tease out lessons and chart a course into the future of open online education Instructors talk about what worked and what didn't Students share their experiences as participants And scholars consider the ethics of this education The collection goes beyond MOOCs to cover variants such as hybrid or blended courses SPOCs Small Personalized Online Courses and DOCCs Distributed Open Collaborative Course Together these essays provide a unique even handed look at the MOOC movement and will serve as a thoughtful guide to those shaping the next steps for open education

Reconstructing Response to Student Writing Dan Melzer, 2023-08-07 In Reconstructing Response to Student Writing Dan Melzer makes the argument that writing instructors should shift the construct so that peer response and student self assessment are more central than teacher response Presenting the results of a national study of teacher and peer response and student self assessment at institutions of higher education across the United States Melzer analyzes teacher and peer response to over 1 000 pieces of student writing as well as 128 student portfolio reflection essays He draws on his analysis and on a comprehensive review of the literature on response to introduce a constructivist heuristic for response aimed at both composition instructors and instructors across disciplines Melzer argues that teachers and researchers should focus less on teacher response to individual pieces of student writing and more on engaging in dialogue with student self assessment and peer response focusing on growth and transfer rather than products and grades Reconstructing Response to Student Writing especially when taken together with Melzer's previous book Assignments across the Curriculum provides a comprehensive and large scale view of college writing and responding across the curriculum in the United States
