Penguin Jazz Guide Four Stars:

Complete Recorded Works in Transcription Sam Morgan's Jazz Band, 2012-01-01 Book URL <https://www.areditions.com/rrra/a073.html> This edition consists of musical transcriptions of all eight recordings of Sam Morgan's Jazz Band made in New Orleans in 1927. These are among the first recordings of black New Orleans jazz bands made in their home city and as the band consisted of musicians who stayed on in New Orleans after the Great Exodus to Chicago and New York in the early 1920s, the recordings preserve a purer form of the collectively improvised ensemble of the earliest black jazz bands. It is a loosely integrated, purely linear ensemble, massing a collective projecting of melodic lines close to the unassimilated heterophonic singing of the Black Primitive Baptist and Sanctified Churches. This proto-jazz style was being rapidly eclipsed in the 1920s by more flamboyant and technically brilliant forms of New Orleans jazz being recorded by Louis Armstrong, Sidney Bechet, and Jelly Roll Morton. The scores contained herein are the first complete transcriptions of this rare and distinctive music to appear in print.

Blue Skies Starr, 2025-07-30 Blue Skies is the wide-ranging story of an American's active life in many professions, places, and cultures over four score years. Embracing subjects as diverse as archaeology, jazz, Sovietology, local history, higher education, architecture, international politics, and Central Asia, it offers firsthand vignettes of prominent figures of those eras, including presidents, musicians, oligarchs, architects, and yes, regular folks. Roaming from America and Europe to Russia and Central Asia, it recounts one man's life in the lingering world of the nineteenth century and amidst the tumultuous changes of both the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. About the Author: S. Frederick Starr was raised in the Midwest and spent most of his adult years in the East, Gulf South, and Russia/Central Asia. He was a founder of the Kennan Institute for Advanced Russian Studies and of the Central Asia/Caucasus Institute, both in Washington, D.C.; vice president of Tulane; president of Oberlin College; and of the Aspen Institute, and was a founder of the Greater New Orleans Foundation. He also served as a trustee of the Rockefeller Brothers Fund and a founding trustee of five universities in Central Asia and the Caucasus. He is the author or editor of more than two dozen books on history, music, architecture, local history, international affairs, and the culture of Central Asia. His book Lost Enlightenment has been translated into twenty-two languages.

Louis Armstrong, More Important Than the Music Bruce D. Epperson, 2013-10-01 Today jazz is considered high art, America's national music, and the catalog of its recordings, its discography, is often taken for granted. But behind jazz discography is a fraught and highly colorful history of research fanaticism and the intense desire to know who played what, where, and when. This history gets its first full-length treatment in Bruce D. Epperson's More Important Than the Music. Following the dedicated few who sought to keep jazz's legacy organized, Epperson tells a fascinating story of archival pursuit in the face of negligence and deception, a tale that saw curses and threats regularly employed, with fistcuffs and lawsuits only slightly rarer. Epperson examines the documentation of recorded jazz from its casual origins as a novelty in the 1920s and 30s through the overwhelming deluge of 12-inch vinyl records in the middle of the twentieth century to the use of computers by
