Pentecost Flames Craft:

The Church Year at Home Christine E. Curley, 2021-07-28 For parents in today's world it can be hard to find the time and resources to fully equip our children to be spiritually mature adults. So much demands our attention and distracts us from God. Curley offers a resource to help parents structure their days and weeks to glorify God and disciple children. Using the church calendar as a guide, she proposes simple and realistic ways as well as resources for the whole family to engage in the Scriptures and thereby push back on the unrelenting culture of today. Faithful Celebrations Sharon Ely Pearson, 2017-10-01 Activities for celebrating secular and sacred seasons of the year. Many of our experiences in life happen when several generations are together at church at home in our communities. Holidays and family events are times for celebration, learning, rituals, food, and fun. This edition of Faithful Celebrations focuses on Mardi Gras, Carnival, Shrove Tuesday, Lent, Holy Week, Easter, and Pentecost. It includes plenty of activities to learn more about each of these sacred seasons or days in a church setting, at home, camp, or anywhere in between. This abundance of ideas allows you to create meaningful celebrations within a faith context throughout the months of February, March, and April. Each event to be celebrated includes key ideas, a cluster of activities to experience the key ideas, materials needed, full instructions for implementation, background, history, and information, music, art, recipes, and prayer resources to use in a small, intimate or large, multi-generational group. For children, youth, adults, or any combination of ages, any of these activities can take place in any setting. Reproducibles such as a Lenten calendar, role-playing cards, and art patterns are available at www.churchpublishing.org for ease of use.

Celebrating the Catholic Home: Traditions and Rituals for Every Holiday and Feast Day Clay McCall, 2025-04-04 In a world where traditions often get lost in the hustle and bustle of modern life, rediscovering the rich tapestry of Catholic customs can bring a profound sense of connection and meaning to our daily lives. This book serves as a guide to enriching your family's spiritual journey by celebrating the timeless traditions and rituals associated with every Catholic holiday and feast day. From Advent wreaths to Easter vigils and from saints' feast days to ordinary Sundays, this book covers a wide array of practices that have been cherished by Catholic families for generations. Each chapter delves into the historical and spiritual significance of these traditions, offering practical advice on how to incorporate them into your home. Whether it's crafting a nativity scene with your children, preparing a special meal for All Saints' Day, or understanding the liturgical importance of different feast days, this book provides the tools and inspiration you need. One of the central challenges many Catholic families face today is preserving their spiritual heritage amidst a rapidly changing world. This book addresses that problem head-on by offering creative and manageable ways to maintain these traditions. Circe's Craft Jo Brantley Berryman, 1983 The Age of Catastrophe John David Ebert, 2012-09-18 Disasters, both natural and man-made, are on the rise. Indeed, a catastrophe of one sort or another seems always to be unfolding somewhere on the planet. We have entered into a veritable Age of Catastrophes which have grown both larger and more complex and now routinely very widespread in scope.

The old days of the geographically isolated industrial accidents of the sinking of a Titanic or the explosion of a Hindenburg together with their isolated causes and limited effects are over Now disasters on the scale of Hurricane Katrina the BP oil spill or the Japan tsunami and nuclear reactor accident threaten to engulf large swaths of civilization This book analyzes the efforts of Westerners to keep the catastrophes outside while maintaining order on the inside of society These efforts are breaking down Nature and Civilization have become so intertwined they can no longer be separated Natural disasters moreover are becoming increasingly more difficult to differentiate from man made Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here
