Police Report El Paso:

Report United States. Congress. House, Reports and Documents United States. Congress, 1955 House Report United States. 79th Congress, 2nd session, 1998 Border Protection, Antiterrorism, and Illegal Immigration Control Act of 2005 United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary, 2005 Departments of Transportation and Housing and Urban Development, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2010 United States. Congress, 2009 The Gang Paradox Robert J. Durán, 2018-09-04 The areas along the U S Mexico border are commonly portrayed as a hot spot for gang activity drug trafficking and violence Yet when Robert J Dur n conducted almost a decade s worth of ethnographic research in border towns between El Paso Texas and southern New Mexico a region notorious for gang activity according to federal officials he found significantly less gang membership and activity than common fearmongering claims would have us believe Instead he witnessed how the gang label was used to criminalize youth of Mexican descent to justify the overrepresentation of Latinos in the justice system the implementation of punitive practices in the school system and the request for additional resources by law enforcement In The Gang Paradox Dur n analyzes the impact of deportation incarceration and racialized perceptions of criminality on Latino families and youth along the border He draws on ethnography archival research official data sources and interviews with practitioners and community members to present a compelling portrait of Latino residents struggles amid deep structural disadvantages Dur n himself a former gang member offers keen insights into youth experience with schools juvenile probation and law enforcement The Gang Paradox is a powerful community study that sheds new light on intertwined criminalization and racialization with policy relevance toward issues of gangs juvenile delinquency and the lack of resources in border regions Municipal Studies University of Texas. Institute of Public Affairs, 1912 Returning Home from Iraq and Afghanistan Institute of Medicine, Board on the Health of Select Populations, Committee on the Assessment of Readjustment Needs of Military Personnel, Veterans, and Their Families, 2013-04-12 As of December 2012 Operation Enduring Freedom OEF in Afghanistan and Operation Iraqi Freedom OIF in Iraq have resulted in the deployment of about 2.2 million troops there have been 2,222 US fatalities in OEF and Operation New Dawn OND 1 and 4,422 in OIF The numbers of wounded US troops exceed 16,000 in Afghanistan and 32,000 in Iraq In addition to deaths and morbidity the operations have unforeseen consequences that are yet to be fully understood In contrast with previous conflicts the all volunteer military has experienced numerous deployments of individual service members has seen increased deployments of women parents of young children and reserve and National Guard troops and in some cases has been subject to longer deployments and shorter times at home between deployments Numerous reports in the popular press have made the public aware of issues that have pointed to the difficulty of military personnel in readjusting after returning from Iraq and Afghanistan Many of those who have served in OEF and OIF readjust with few difficulties but others have problems in readjusting to home reconnecting with family members finding employment and returning to school

In response to the return of large numbers of veterans from Iraq and Afghanistan with physical health and mental health problems and to the growing readjustment needs of active duty service members veterans and their family members Congress included Section 1661 of the National Defense Authorization Act for fiscal year 2008 That section required the secretary of defense in consultation with the secretary of veterans affairs to enter into an agreement with the National Academies for a study of the physical health mental health and other readjustment needs of members and former members of the armed forces who were deployed in OIF or OEF their families and their communities as a result of such deployment The study consisted of two phases The Phase 1 task was to conduct a preliminary assessment The Phase 2 task was to provide a comprehensive assessment of the physical psychologic social and economic effects of deployment on and identification of gaps in care for members and former members their families and their communities The Phase 1 report was completed in March 2010 and delivered to the Department of Defense DOD the Department of Veterans Affairs VA and the relevant committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate The secretaries of DOD and VA responded to the Phase 1 report in September 2010 Returning Home from Iraq and Afghanistan Assessment of Readjustment Needs of Veterans Service Members and Their Families fulfills the requirement for Phase 2

Law Enforcement Report ,1983 Lethal Warriors David Philipps,2010-11-09 Pulitzer Prize finalist David Philipps brings to life the chilling story of how today s American heroes are slipping through the fingers of society with multiple tours of duty and inadequate mental health support creating a crisis of PTSD and a large scale failure of veterans to reintegrate into society Following the frightening narrative of the 506th Infantry Regiment who had rebranded themselves as the Lethal Warriors after decades as the Band of Brothers he reveals how the painful realities of war have multiplied in recent years with tragic outcomes for America s soldiers compounded by an indifferent government and a shrinking societal safety net

COPS Improvement Act of 2009 United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary,2009 FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin ,1963 Trying to Make It Rajeev V. Gundur,2022-08-15 Trying to Make It is R V Gundur s journey from the US Mexico border to America s heartland from America s prisons to its streets in search of the true story of the drug trade and the people who participate in it The book begins in the Paso del Norte area encompassing the sister cities of Ciudad Ju rez and El Paso which has been in the public eye as calls for securing the border persist From there it moves on to Phoenix which was infamously associated with the drug trade through a series of kidnappings Finally the book goes on to Chicago which has been a lightning rod of criticism for its gangs and violence Gundur highlights the similarities and differences that exist in the American drug trade within the three sites and how they relate to current drug trade narratives in the US At each stop the reader is transported to the city s historical and contemporary contexts of the drug trade and introduced to the individuals who have lived them Drug retailers street and prison gang members wholesalers and the law enforcement personnel who try to stop them offer readers a comprehensive look at how various illicit enterprises work together to supply the drugs that American users demand Most importantly through a combination of macro and microlevel vantage points and comparative analysis of three key sites in illicit drug operations the stories in Trying to Make It remind us that the people involved in the drug trade for the most part do not deserve vilification Far from being a seemingly uniform widespread threat or an unlimited array of bogeymen and women they are ordinary people living ordinary lives just trying to make it      Reports on Cities National Board of Fire Underwriters. Committee of Twenty,1905 Each report is devoted to a single city and gives a description of the conditions which affect fire risks such as the water supply system the organization of the fire department etc also a brief outline of the city government as a whole Includes recommendations for improvements      Juvenile Delinquency United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1955      Explosives Incidents Report ,1989      Social Justice in the U.S.-Mexico Border Region Mark Lusk,Kathleen Staudt,Eva Moya,2012-06-12 The U S Mexico Border Region is among the poorest geographical areas in the United States The region has been long characterized by dual development poor infrastructure weak schools health disparities and low wage employment More recently the region has been affected by the violence associated with a drug and crime war in Mexico The premise of this book is that the U S Mexico Border Region is subject to systematic oppression and that the so called social pathologies that we see in the region are by products of social and economic injustice in the form of labor exploitation environmental racism immigration militarism institutional sexism and discrimination health inequities a political economy based on low wage labor and the globalization of labor and capital The chapters address a variety of examples of injustice in the areas of environment health disparity migration unemployment citizenship women and gender violence mental health and drug violence The book proposes a pathway to development
