Beginner Teacher's Book Rod Fricker, 2008-06-04 Pearson's Magazine , 1910 Vol 49 no 9 Sept 1922 accompanied by a separately paged section entitled ERA electronic reactions of Abrams Ohio Educational Monthly and the National Teacher , 1899 Education in Nigeria Daniel A. Nomishan, 2014-12-26 This book Education in Nigeria Reflections and Global Perspectives provides a broad overview of education in Nigeria It recognizes the vital role education plays in the development of Nigeria and has attempted to air the concerns and call of the Nigerian public as well as educators for reform in the educational system in Nigeria The book further recognizes that Nigerian education continues to be evolved first into a system of Western European education and then into a global system of education It attempts to examine the status of education in Nigeria and thereby seeks solutions by exploring Nigeria s and global historical perspectives current trends and future directions regarding students and learning teachers and teaching the school curriculum and administration of schools It is expected that the comprehensive nature of the text will be beneficial to individuals in teacher preparation programs as well as those who plan to work with children in pre kindergarten nursery through secondary settings The chapter content of the book focuses on the variation of thought as to the principal objectives of educators to help students in Nigeria develop habits skills and ideas and help them to think It adds to the importance of providing education to all especially at the time when Nigeria is frankly making an effort to affirm democracy For any nation to be truly democratic it must maintain an educated electorate Education prepares people to make informed decisions that affect the society All children in Nigeria should therefore receive an education to prepare them to become effective members of the world society This book seeks to examine and reflect on education in Nigeria and globally Mindful and Relational Approaches to Social Justice, Equity, and Diversity in Teacher Education Julian Kitchen, Karen Ragoonaden, 2019-12-30 As teaching is socially culturally and politically constructed it is important that teacher educators committed to social justice attempt to create secure environment where all voices are heard and teacher candidates can inquire into personally and socially challenging topics within a safe and caring classroom culture Relationships of trust are fundamental to teaching about social justice and to being receptive as learners in such classes Mindfulness on the part of teacher educators and teacher candidates can go a long way in fostering respect openness and acceptance in such classes Together they can lead to teacher educators and candidates thinking deeply about themselves schools and schooling as they move towards a vision of a more equitable and just society The teacher educators who have contributed to this volume recognize the challenges of balancing respect for their students with the call to social justice Their accounts and critical reflections convey how relational and mindful approaches might offer positive avenues to self and shared exploration by teacher candidates and teacher educators alike Several chapters attend to the challenges for educators as they encounter culturally and linguistically diverse contexts Others attend to these issues within the complexity of diverse university classrooms in order to guide teacher candidates towards dispositions and practices that help foster inclusion and engage diverse learners and communities Together these chapters offer thoughtful approaches to living alongside aspiring teachers as they develop deeper understanding of the concepts of race and diversity and inclusive approaches to teaching and learning
