Pride Shaun De Waal, Anthony Manion, 2006 This book documents Johannesburg Pride from 1990 to 2005 and Cape Town's inaugural Pride in 1993 Pageants and Processions Herman C. Du Toit, 2009 Nowadays pageants often take the form of parades of effervescent young women competing for popular recognition in hyped up media events However these oebauty pageants are a mere pastiche of the elaborate historical parades of the medieval period that took significant social religious or civic events and their protagonists as subjects Pageants were historically characterized by resplendent costuming and elaborate processions that were often given to much pomp and ceremony Pageantry has formed an important part of the civic life of most societies both ancient and modern serving a variety of cultural and political purposes The use of drama and public spectacle as an instrument of civic social and religious activism has recently become the focus of renewed academic inquiry The essays in this interdisciplinary anthology provide carefully researched insights into the phenomenon of pageantry over the centuries and across broad cultural boundaries McGregor's who Owns Whom in South Africa, 1999 The Drama of South Africa Loren Kruger, 2005-11-01 The Drama of South Africa comprehensively chronicles the development of dramatic writing and performance from 1910 when the country came into official existence to the advent of post apartheid Eminent theatre historian Loren Kruger discusses well known figures as well as lesser known performers and directors who have enriched the theatre of South Africa She also highlights the contribution of women and other minorities concluding with a discussion of the post apartheid character of South Africa at the end of the twentieth century LIRA (eBook) Lira, 2013-11-01 Over the past ten years buoyed by multi platinum sales of her albums and live DVD as well numerous awards Lira has exploded into a South African music phenomenon that has also seen her win international acclaim But has Lira's road to fame always been paved with roses And what makes her such a special star In LIRA Making HERstory the first ever book about Lira and her life her fans will be have the opportunity to get an in depth look into the life of this beautiful South African music star and gain inside knowledge about her and her road to fame from the people close to her Lira consists of four parts In the first part of the book co author Clyde Meela gives readers a biographical overview of Lira's life from the beginning of her life to date Interviews with friends family members neighbours and many other key figures in her life tells how they all have contributed to moulding her into the person she is today In Part 2 of the book Lira herself gives readers and fans an insight into her personal thoughts feelings and beliefs by sharing the private detail behind the motivation of her song writing She discusses her experiences of love how she has been able to pick herself up after disappointment and she also exposes readers to her daily mantra of gratefulness and practices of love In the third part of her book Lira's husband long time business partner producer and manager Robin Kohl gives inside information on the formation of the brand we all know today as Lira Robin discusses how Lira's career started out from humble beginnings to become the globally recognized brand it is today Readers will get an in depth view of how the Lira brand is run the ethics and principals that form its

Balancing Act Joanne Bloch,Karen Martin,2005 In Balancing act South African gay and lesbian youth speak out twenty one young gay and lesbian South Africans from a wide range of social backgrounds speak candidly about their experiences hopes and dreams The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham,John Sterling,Frederick Denison Maurice,Henry Stebbing,Charles Wentworth Dilke,Thomas Kibble Hervey,William Hepworth Dixon,Norman Maccoll,Vernon Horace Rendall,John Middleton Murry,1893 Ruptured Walk Lunko,2021-12-15 Conflict is an inherent part of life The ruptured Walk not only evokes the narrator protagonist s personal family and spiritual life It brilliantly and expertly gives us a gaze into the heart of a woman whose search for peace and justice brings her almost to a cataclysmic end Her vistas takes the reader into her confidence as she confides how the pulpit is used to subject the congregants into kowtowing to the pastor s authority and those who dare see it as an object of oppression are tried and cast out as silly tedious deviates She gently reflects that behind an indomitable character she is known to be still stands a fallible person who battles with some of the choices she has made In her pursuit to self correct she becomes a lone voice trying to dissuade others from falling prey to the same unfortunate fate she suffered This sends her into the tradition of renegades as viewed through the eyes of the pastor The animosity between the pastor and our protagonist culminates in the decision of her viewing family relations rather than money This view compels the reader to decide on his or her own virtues what comes first between church money and family In the end the narrative talks to the name of the book why the author chose not to name it Rapture which means a feeling of intense pleasure rather a rupture that means break away Once again the woman s decision is against the popular norm The author expertly takes us through Mehlolo's conflicting personal and popular view and she elects the antonym of union deciding to break away in a complex yet narratively sequential the theme of the story lends itself with ease to the name
