

11 STEPS TO BUY PENNY STOCKS

Are the penny stocks the right thing for you?
You should not invest if you're ready to lose everything and not willing to give more.

Look only for quality penny stocks traded on major stock exchanges or OTC.
Test and penny stocks tend to be wild in trading.

Doing analysis and getting some potential returns.
Learn how to apply technical and fundamental analysis. Think of what you can't see in the market.

Try it on a demo.
Trading on a demo platform gives you a chance to test your strategy and see how it works in real time.

Set goals.
Set goals and stick to them. Don't let your emotions take over. Set a range of targets and try to hit them.

Choose the sources with best picks.
Research the sources that will give you the best information. You should not follow them all without doing your own research.

Choose a broker.
Search online for the best broker for penny stocks and read some reviews before you choose.

Pick some industries you like.
Narrow your search to specific industries and choose industries you're comfortable with and knowledgeable about.

Pick the specific stocks that you like.
Pick the stocks that you like and research them for a week or two so you can understand their performance.

Contact the Investor Relations of every company.
It's important to contact them by phone and not by email. Ask questions and listen to what they have to say about their business.

Make your first investment.
Open a position with your broker and make the investment. Don't forget to keep an eye on the market when you're trading penny stocks.
